Area Improvements Likely; 2 Governor Rivals Coming Here

Major breakthroughs are possible this summer and fall in achieving Madison County highway, recreation and stormwater drainage objectives, the Press-Record learned today.

An authoritative source said such attainments not only are imminent but will be of unprecedented scope.

They will be expedited so that the proposals become realities within an unusually short span of time, the source added.

In addition to transportation, park and drainage projects, steps will be taken to eliminate tax waste and assure more responsible administration of governmental services in region-wide programs affecting the Quad-Cities, the Press-Record was told.

The word that public improvement planning has reached the "full speed ahead" point for bidding and construction—and that totally new projects also are ready to proceed—circulated this week as the two top state candidates, rivals for the governor's office, prepared to visit this area.

Governor Richard B. Ogilvie, who is seeking re-election on the Republican ticket, will be in Madison County tomorrow and has scheduled a press conference for metropolitan area news media at 2:30 p.m. Friday at the Tri-City YMCA.

Daniel Walker, Democratic nominee for governor, will be guest of honor at a barbecue to be held from noon to 10 p.m. Sunday at the Croatian Home, 1000 Madison Ave., Madison.

Walker also will confer with the public at 8:30 p.m. Monday at the Long Lake firemen's recreation hall on Pontoon Road in Pontoon Beach. That location is a change from the previously announced Town Hall site.

1st GC School Borrowing in Decade Ahead?

By MARION BARTOSIAK
Press-Record Staff Writer

A tentative budget totaling $19,176,772, a decrease of $2,648,101 from that of last year, was adopted by the Granite City Board of Education for the 1972-73 school year during a meeting Monday night.

The decrease resulted in elimination of an appropriation for new buildings which last year was $4,456,664, mostly for schools, but includes $450,000 for equipment under the new construction account, an increase of $250,000, for the new high school. All other appropriations show increases.

The budget includes $15,593,614 for the educational fund, up $1,281,376; $1,313,240 for the building fund, up $173,240; $1,108,333 for the bond and interest fund, up $1,005; $366,700 for the transportation fund, up $3,059; and $344,885 for the municipal retirement fund, up $69,885.

Final adoption will follow a public hearing at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 18 at the school district administrative offices where the budget will be posted for a 30-day period.

Tax Levy, Rate

The proposed estimated levy to be raised by taxes is $8,503,633, an increase of $413,172, based on an estimated assessed valuation of $230 million, or $3 million more than last year. It would bring in $23,000 for each penny of tax rate before any loss and cost is applied.

A tax rate of $3.8326 per $100 assessed valuation would be 12.16 cents higher than last year's actual rate of $3.7110 and about at the limit permitted without voter approval.

The total increase in the budget is $1,558,563, not including equipment for new buildings, as compared to a total increase of $1,490,766 for the 1971-72 year and $1,541,709 for the 1970-71 year.

Expect to Borrow

Victor Anderson, who was in charge of budget preparations, informed the board that the district may have to borrow money through tax anticipation warrants before the end of the school year for the first time since 1963.

The amount of money to be borrowed will depend on how tax funds will be collected and how soon the money will be turned over to the district, amount of personal tax that may be lost this and next year and how much money can be saved out of the new budget.

Major cause of the budget increase was instruction, which accounted for $767,440 of the amount. Included were salaries of teachers and secretaries which added $617,421 to the account, with other services and supplies showing $74,600 in higher costs.

Attendance, health, operation and maintenance accounts increased a total of $228,935, with most for salaries of nurses, custodians and maintenance personnel.

The building fund increase was caused by repairs to the high school auditorium. The fund provides for a fifth and final installment payment of $53,000 on the Stolze facility which houses the administration offices.

Other Increases

Other increases covered administration costs totaling $64,034, mostly for administrative and secretarial pay hikes, $68,000 for health insurance, $5,808 for the athletic program, $39,475 for cafeteria salaries and cost of food, and $69,029 for capital outlay and replacement equipment, mostly for the new high school. Included is furniture, $20,000; band, $15,000; commercial, $20,000; home economics, $4,000; and special education, $6,000.

Anderson reported that during the past year a total of $142,464 was earned from investment of temporarily idle operational funds.

Interest revenue for the district from July 1, 1963, through June 30, 1972, has totaled $737,413, with $594,948 in past years and $142,464 last year.

In addition, bond issue funds in the district's custody will have earned: New Construction No. 1, $197,914 (all accounted for), and New Construction No. 2, $837,708 (many of the investments will mature in 1973).

Drive for New YMCA Building

Dr. E. W. Walton, president of the Tri-City YMCA board, today announced plans for a $1½ million capital fund drive opening Jan. 15 to construct a new YMCA.

Harold McKee of Modesto, Calif., representing the national YMCA staff, has conferred with the local "Y" board at a monthly luncheon meeting and also has met with the board's executive committee.

The new "Y" is to be situated at a different location than the present YMCA building, 20th Street and Edison Avenue, which served a population of about 25,000 when completed and opened in the early 1920s.

Although repairs and major renovations have been made on past occasions, the "Y" is now regarded as structurally inadequate and as lacking in space and facilities needed for the current 75,000 population.

No specific location has been selected. Five possible sites have been under discussion, Dr. Walton said. About 15 acres are sought.

McKee travels extensively on behalf of the New York office of Financial Development Services, YMCA national fund-raising affiliate. He is considered an authority in the fund-raising field and has advised local "Y" officials of potential procedures to be followed in the fund campaign. Its timing has been approved by the Tri-Cities United Fund board.

The new building is to include a modern, indoor swimming pool, club rooms, exercise rooms, handball courts and gymnastic areas.

Dr. Walton commented, "It is the feeling of the YMCA board that there is a definite need for new 'Y' facilities in order to meet the needs of our expanding community."

News Notes

Employes of the Casting Division of General Steel Industries were informed yesterday that the possibility of closing the local plant for one month in October is being studied and that, in conjunction with the possible closing, all September vacations have been canceled.

Officials said today that "because of a low volume of business from now to the end of the year, there is no way to operate the plant efficiently. As a result, we have to shut portions of the plant down for a number of weeks."

They explained that production schedules are being studied to determine if a total plant closing for one month is feasible. The possibility also exists that the foundry department may be closed for part of September, they indicated.

"The only plans for shutting down concern October, and perhaps some operations for periods as we move along. There are no other plans for shutting down the division," they emphasized.

All September vacations which had been granted were revoked and new requests for September vacations will be denied, they said; they have asked all employes who have vacation time due to plan October vacations. Some August vacations for supervisory personnel also were canceled, it was noted.

Boy Scout Office Will Be Erected

By WALTER STRANGE

Plans for construction of a new Boy Scout building in Granite City to be known as the Carl Graham Scout Center will be developed by the Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council soon, it was announced Tuesday following presentation of a $25,000 building contribution under the will of the late William Carl Graham.

The gift, added to a $5,000 fund contributed by the late Mr. Graham in 1954 and the contribution of a building site by the First Granite City National Bank will permit early development of the building project, scout council officials said. The lot provided by the bank is in the 1800 block of Edison Avenue.

Budget Veto Overridden

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

An effort by Mayor Donald Partney to veto all of Granite City's new 1972-73 budget bill was turned back by a vote of 13 to 0, with one council member abstaining, in a meeting of the city council Monday night.

The mayor, following the council action overriding his veto, announced he intends to veto the tax levy bill when it is presented for approval. The tax levy is expected to be given the council in its Aug. 21 meeting.

In defeating the veto, the council retained a 1972-73 budget totaling $3,980,771, an increase of $304,790 over last year's appropriation and $195,679 higher than a budget that had been proposed by the mayor earlier in the year.

The budget was given final approval in a special council session July 31, the last day on which the city legally could adopt a budget. Adoption of the budget bill in the special meeting followed two unsuccessful efforts to place the bill on final passage in previous meetings.

Sent Council Messages

Mayor Partney, although he had been hospitalized during June and July, continued to support his budget of $3,785,092 in a series of messages which

City Trash Pickups Next Week Scheduled

City trash collections of burnable materials only will be conducted by the Granite City street department next week in the area bounded by East 23rd Street, Washington Avenue and Nameoki road, Street Superintendent Lionel Portell announced today.

The pickups are being made by the city in addition to regular garbage collections by Milam East Corp. because of the open burning ban that prohibits residents from burning grass cuttings, limbs, brush or waste paper.

City pickups are being made this week in the area bounded by Washington Avenue, Center Street and Nameoki Road, Portell said.

Pay Landfill Cost or Face Suit, City Told

Granite City must pay for landfill usage in operation of its new trash pickup system or face possible court action for readjustment of its present garbage collection contract with Milam East Corp., an official of the Milam firm told city council members Monday night.

Stanley Leitner, general manager of Milam East Corp., told council members that Milam "doesn't want a court case in this matter, but if it comes to that, we must."

In a discussion between Leitner and the aldermen that lasted for nearly an hour before the council began its regular business session, Leitner noted that his firm, which holds the city garbage collection contract, has been giving greater service than actually required in the contract "because we realized the city faces a problem in picking up extra trash."

But, he said, the city has gone in competition to Milam by instituting its own city pick-up service and is hauling its limbs, grass cuttings and other materials to the Milam landfill and dumping there without making any arrangement to pay the charges.

Provided in Contract

Under the city's contract with Milam, the sanitation firm is to accept from the street department and sewer department material that it wishes to dump. Leitner noted, however, that the contract has gone unchanged for several years and that the large quantity of refuse resulting from the statewide open burning ban was not considered when that phase of the contract was written.

The controversy results from the initiation of the city-operated trash collection system after it had called bids for a contract to pick up the extra refuse caused by the open burning ban.

Since Aug. 1, Granite City residents have been subject to arrest for open burning. As a result, it is the city's responsibility to pick up limbs, brush, waste paper, grass cuttings and other burnable trash that previously was disposed of by the residents by burning.

Instead of awarding a contract to one of four bidders who responded to the bid call, including the Milam firm, the city council agreed to go along with a proposal by Mayor Donald Partney that the city economize by using two surplus civil defense trucks and four men provided by the Madison

Venice Hopeful on Suit To End 'Double Taxing'

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Venice City Council members were told Tuesday night that a suit the city has filed challenging Madison County's charge-back system to pay the cost of tax extension and collection probably will mark the end of the system.

Harry Hartman, city attorney, told the aldermen, "I imagine we'll have some success in our hearing. I think it's an obvious violation of the Constitution."

A hearing on an injunction plea is set today in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville.

The city named Madison County Treasurer George Musso and Venice Township Tax Collector Frank Reidelberger Jr. in the suit and asked that they be enjoined from withholding tax money to pay for collection costs. Musso is ex-officio county collector.

Held From Musso

Hartman said Reidelberger presently is holding collected taxes until the issue is decided. "At least the county treasurer can't get his hands on it," Hartman said.

The charge-back system which is being challenged was created by the old county board to pay the cost of tax collection throughout the county and to withhold a portion of each taxing body's tax funds to pay for the cost of collecting the taxes for that body. The withholding from the city of Venice was set at $13,409.

The system was created after the 1970 state Constitution prohibited the withholding of a 2% fee by township tax collectors and a 3% fee by the county treasurer for collection costs.

The section of the Constitution in question states . . . "fees shall not be based upon funds disbursed or collected, nor upon the levy or extension of taxes." All fee offices were abolished by the section.

Withhold Actual Cost

In creating the charge-back system, the County Board said they wanted the portion withheld from each taxing body to represent only the actual cost of collecting and distributing the taxes to that body.

The Venice suit disagrees and alleges that charge-backs still are based upon "funds disbursed or collected" or "the levy or extension of taxes."

Venice also charges the plan represents "double taxation" for several county departments, including the Supervisor of Assessments' office, which receive special tax levies.

Double Taxation

It charges that the taxpayers are paying twice to have their taxes collected — once when a taxing body pays the county for the service from tax funds, and again when the taxpayer pays the special tax levies.

The city also claims that it was not notified, as required by county ordinance, that $13,409 would be withheld from its tax revenues for the county collection service.

In other business, the Venice City Council:

Accepted the annual audit report of the city financial records.

Approve Permits

Approved building permits for an $8,000 one-room addition to the home of David Barrett, 1013 Market St.; a $350 garage at the home of David Hodges, 530 Meredocia St., and for fire damage repair at 1040 Douglas St., owned by Henry Whitener.

Although the boy had gone to the area to obtain auto parts, the incident did not occur at an automotive garage, employes there said.

More State Help for Young Whose Parents Are Dead, Neglectful or Brutal to Them

By GOVERNOR
RICHARD B. OGILVIE

There's no generation gap between me and the young people of today when it comes to getting involved.

That's the reason I ran for public office — I wanted the chance to do something effective about the way things were being run.

As governor, I naturally get problems that I feel I can solve only by doing what I consider right, no matter how much these decisions may hurt my popularity.

But there are great compensations in heading a government that touches all our lives, and in trying to make its operations more effective in solving what might be called people problems.

One department of special interest to me is the Department of Children and Family Services.

It is, in effect, the guardian for thousands of children whose parents are dead, neglectful or down-right harmful to their children.

Services provided for these children and their families are designed to safeguard the most precious natural resource we have, our children.

From 43 offices throughout the state, the department offers counseling, child protection, placement of abused and neglected children in foster homes and institutions, adoption services, and licensing of child care facilities.

The department also operates state schools for blind, deaf, and crippled children, as well as centers for dependent youngsters.

On March 18, I appointed a woman, Mrs. Jimi Anne Lawrence, to head this important department.

I believe Mrs. Lawrence is bringing to the job a blend of a mother's compassion and top administrative experience that cuts through red tape and roadblocks to make sure services get to the people who need them.

One area of glaring need is day care.

Today, there are more than 75,000 children being cared for in licensed day and night care centers and homes throughout our state.

This is a much brighter picture than when I took office in 1969. But there are still too many children being cared for under hazardous conditions.

Some are healthy, active preschoolers looked after by an elderly grandparent who has neither the mental nor physical agility to provide proper supervision.

Some are infants and young children "cared for" in the basements of unlicensed, rickety, firetrap tenements by unscrupulous operators who put financial gain ahead of the safety of children.

Some are "latchkey" children — young boys and girls who fend for themselves after school.

They let themselves into their darkened homes or apartments every afternoon with a key the mother has tied on a string around their necks.

In too many instances, children are left in these circumstances not because the parents like it — but because they see no other way.

There is another way, however, and I have committed the state to develop it to the fullest possible extent.

As a result, we have increased the day care budget of the Department of Children and Family Services tenfold since 1969.

Some persons see increased expenditures in day care as worthwhile because they keep to a minimum the number of employable mothers on welfare. This is true in many instances.

Other persons think day care is a good investment because it reduces family problems and the malicious mischief of children who go without supervision. That is also a side benefit.

But the primary reason we need to expand day care is because we value our children.

The type of day care I envision is not mere babysitting. It is comprehensive child development.

It includes services that meet the health, social, recreational and educational needs of boys and girls.

I have insisted on two points in expanding the state's effort in day care.

One is that priority be given to poverty areas where families are trying to pull themselves up by their bootstraps.

Another is that the state stimulate private investment in day care through seed grants to non-profit organizations, contracts, and purchase of service arrangements, rather than having the state itself operate massive day car facilities.

This is in keeping with my belief that government should be the catalyst, the stimulator, the innovator in people programs.

With appropriate help from government, most people would rather be involved and do things themselves.

And, than goodness, there are so many people like that!

Dixon Sees Many Split Votes On State and Local Offices

By KEN WATSON
Copley News Service

Springfield — "The split-ticket voting should be tremendous."

That's a prediction for the November election in Illinois by State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon, long respected as one of the Statehouse's most knowledgeable political figures.

Dixon, who lives in Belleville, has been busy in Northern Illinois as Downstate campaign director for Auditor Michael J. Howlett, Democratic candidate for secretary of state.

Like most professionals, Dixon agrees that the 1972 campaign is unprecedented and that any predictions are risky. Also, like most Democrats, he candidly views the presidential fight in this state as an uphill one—with President Nixon unquestionably strong.

Nor does he dispute the prevailing Capitol view that Republicans hold a decided edge in the races for U. S. senator and attorney general.

The two key struggles as seen by Dixon are for secretary of state and governor, with a possibility that either or both could be decided by 100,000 votes or less.

Four years ago, 4.7 million votes were cast in Illinois. Republicans captured the governorship with a 127,794 plurality but Democrats were winners for lieutenant governor, secretary of state and auditor by 896,421, 105,029 and 108,725 votes, respectively.

Dixon is most optimistic about his own man, Howlett, and rates him "clearly ahead at this stage."

He is also inclined to give Democrat Daniel Walker the edge in the governor's race but does report diminishing resentment against Republican Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie.

"There seems to be a softening toward Gov. Ogilvie," Dixon notes, "a feeling that he did what had to be done. People are no longer just downright angry at him."

Dixon finds that the split-voting phenomenon is not confined to state races but to local ones as well—and that traditionally strong Democratic counties are showing surprising support for some Republican candidates, and vice-versa.

In Northern Illinois, Dixon says, Democrats can now claim the edge in Winnebago County (Rockford), once a GOP stronghold. And they have made major inroads in such other traditional Republican strongholds as DuPage.

But to the South, Republicans are showing unprecedented strength in such Democratic bastions as St. Clair County (Belleville).

Dixon is emphatic on one point; presidential candidate George McGovern has hurt himself seriously in Illinois by his abrupt dumping of vice-president candidate Thomas F. Eagleton of Missouri.

A longtime friend of Senator Eagleton, Treasurer Dixon feels he could have "ridden out the storm" and eventually proved an asset to the national ticket.

Landfill

County Emergency Employment Act to operate a city trash pickup system.

Situation Intolerable

Leitner told the council Monday night that "The city advertised for bids. We submitted a bid along with three other firms. I feel the city is in competition with us and we are absorbing the cost. It is an intolerable situation."

William Dallas, chairman of the council's Sanitation Committee, said he believed the mayor's plan for trash pickups "may not work." He agreed to a meeting at 4 p.m. Tuesday to include the Sanitation and Finance Committees for a discussion of the problem.

Alderman R. E. Robertson, serving as mayor protem in Partney's absence, suggested arrangements be made to hold the meeting in Mayor Partney's home so that Partney could attend.

The meeting failed to develop after Mayor Partney was unable to participate, although Robertson, Dallas, City Attorney Leon Scroggins and Street Superintendent Lionel Portell arrived for the session at City hall. The officials made no decisions on the problem.

Dan Walker Daughters Visit Quad-City Area

Misses Kathy and Julie Walker, daughters of Dan Walker, Democratic candidate for governor of Illinois, arrived in the Quad-City area Wednesday afternoon and were present at the gates of American Steel Foundries and Granite City Steel Co. this morning to meet the workers.

They arrived at American Steel at 7 a.m. and Granite City Steel at 8 a.m. and continued their visit to the Madison City Hall for an informal talk with Mayor Mike Sasyk, and at the Venice City Hall to visit Mayor John Lee.

Both young ladies left in the afternoon for Alton and are to visit the Monroe County Fair in Waterloo, Ill.

CAR TAKEN FROM HOME

The auto of Timothy Thompson, 1634 Third St., was taken from in front of that address, Thompson reported at 8 a.m. today. Among the car's furnishings was a stereo tape player.

He was transferred to Scott Air Force Base Hospital in Belleville but enroute his condition reportedly worsened and he was brought to the hospital here where he was pronounced dead.

Funeral services were to be at 2 p.m. today in Alton with interment in Valhalla Cemetery, Godfrey.

pending legislation allowing increases of weight-per-axle for trucks on Illinois streets and highways. Engineers have indicated that the city's streets are not designed to withstand the heavier loads.

The council also requested that the demolition committee investigate boarded-up and vacant houses in the city to determine if condemnation proceedings are warranted against them.

The committee was asked to prepare the necessary condemnation papers on those buildings which should be demolished and to present the papers to the council at its Sept. 5 meeting.

City Budget

he sent to the council. He maintained his budget was at the maximum figure that could be met by anticipated revenue during the 1972-73 fiscal year that began on May 1.

The mayor's veto message Monday night came as a surprise to city council members, including those who frequently support the mayor on city issues.

Alderman R. E. Robertson, who has served as mayor pro tem during Mayor Partney's absence, remarked that throughout "my entire political career, I never have experienced a veto of an entire budget bill." Robertson is a former mayor of Granite City, serving in the mid-1920s.

In his veto message, the mayor said:

"The aldermen's budget is out of reason. I think the city can get by with the budget presented by the mayor. This budget is as close to our income as I could possibly estimate.

Already Overtaxed

"As the budget increases, also the taxpayers' taxes increase. With our present budget, we can keep our constituents, but if it continues to increase it will be impossible to keep our older residents. They are already overtaxed.

"Rather than increasing the city's population, we, if the taxes continue to increase, will lessen our population annually. Even though the county has the power to raise taxes, when our budget is high the county accordingly sets its budget high."

Most aldermen had anticipated a veto message by the mayor, but one that would involve only certain sections of the bill. Several council members said they anticipated a long debate on the budget in consideration of separate items which the mayor might veto.

When the veto message embraced the entire budget bill, it had the effect of bringing the aldermen together in an agreement that a veto of the entire appropriation measure would cripple the city.

Several aldermen accused the mayor of "playing politics in an election year."

Alderman Emerald Dawes told the council that "you can make yourself look good in an election year with a low budget. I could come up with a budget that looked real good, but you couldn't operate the city on it."

Alderman Walter Nonn remarked that "we have a real problem here. No matter how you vote, you'll be wrong."

Nonn Passed Vote

Nonn was the only alderman of the 14 present that did not vote on the bill. He passed the vote on the roll call.

Mayor Partney said that he is certain a veto of the tax levy bill would hold up even if the veto were overridden.

"I don't think the county clerk's office (which extends the taxes) would accept a tax levy without my signature," the mayor said.

In a related action, the council placed on a file a veto by Mayor Partney of another ordinance that raised the salary of Chief of Police Ronald Veiser to $15,622 a year.

Partney noted in his veto message that the budget which he had presented raised Veizer's salary to $14,812 which was within the standards of the chiefs of police in Illinois.

The salary increase was granted by the council in the July 24 meeting in an effort to equalize salaries of the chiefs of the police and fire departments.

Council members agreed Monday night that the ordinance may have failed to accomplish this, an called upon City Attorney Leon Scroggins to bring in a new salary bill stating more specifically the salaries, overtime, holiday and longevity terms as applied to the chiefs of the two departments.

LAWN MOWER STOLEN

A lawn mower with a 21-inch blade, valued at $81, was stolen from the garage of Robert Turner, 3136 Carlson Ave., during the night, he reported at 7:20 p.m. Monday.

Boy Scout

ified for building purposes was presented Tuesday morning by Roy K. Graham, nephew and executor of the estate of the late Mr. Graham, to Allen L. Jessee, treasurer of the scout council.

Graham said:

"As executor of the estate of Carl Graham, it gives me great pleasure to present the Cahokia Mound Council with this check for $25,000 in accordance with the final will of Mr. Graham.

"Mr. Graham has requested that the money be added to the $5,000 already given the Cahokia Mound Council, and be used in the construction of a council headquarters in Granife City.

Should Permit Construction

"The sums ear-marked for the council headquarters, plus any money derived from the sale of Camp Graham near Collinsville would be a fine start and permit actual construction.

"As a former scouter, having joined Troop 2 in 1920, and as a charter member of the Eagle Scout Association of the Cahokia Mound Council since 1926, and having served as a life-guard and Camp Rankin staff member, I take great pleasure in all accomplishments of the council.

"May we all see in the near future the Carl Graham Boy Scout Center give added zeal to the growth and development of the Boy Scouts in our fine Council," Graham commented.

The building site offered by the First Granite City National Bank would provide both a downtown location and ample public parking.

Planned Move

Plans to move out of the old offices now located on the second floor at 1338a Niedringhous Ave., have been under consideration by council scout officials for some time.

On March 30, 1971, Henry D. Karandjeff, a member of the council executive board and a veteran scouter, contacted the engineering service of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, for information on designs and suggestions to be considered in the building of a scout office building.

Merrill Ottwein, of Edwardsville, local Boy Scout council president, said an office committee will be appointed at the Aug. 24 meeting of the executive board at Cottonwood Station in Edwardsville to plan prompt construction of the building.

"I know of no better way to improve our image with our own scouters and the general public than to have a clean, easily accessible and practical service center," Ottwein said.

"I also believe that there are many friends of scouting who will contribute willingly the extra money needed to make the service center a reality," he added.

"We do not need a fancy building," William Monical, council scout executive, said. "We need a simple, well-constructed building for service to our volunteers."

John Young Had 'Time of Life' on Trip to Florida

John Allen Young, 9-year-old son Granite City Patrolman and Mrs. Albert Young, returned home Monday after experiencing "the time of his life" at Disneyland in Florida, and a tour of the Kennedy Space Center.

John, who faces almost certain blindness because of an incurable eye diease, was accompanied by his parents and his sister, Tracy, in a trip made possible by contributions and proceeds from benefit affairs arranged so that the boy might experience some of the scenic marvels of the country before he is afflicted.

"John had the time of his life and saw sights he never will forget," his father said upon the family's return.

"He really enjoyed the jet plane ride, "Patrolman Young said, adding that "as a matter of fact I wouldn't have believed it possible to make the time they do. We left Tampa at 10:15 a.m. Monday, arrived at Lambert Field at 11:17 a.m. (St. Louis time) and I reported for work at 12:30 p.m."

Young said deputies of the Madison County sheriff's department who conducted one of the major benefit affairs to make the trip possible "really treated us swell." He said a cheriff's car took the family to the airport when they left for the trip last week, and met the family at the airport upon its arrival Monday.

Meanwhile the John Allen Young benefit fund at First Granite City National Bank was increased by $200, representing contributions collected by ladies of precinct 3 in Nameoki township.

Those who made the collections included Olga Garcia, Marian Dee Lozier, Pat Mullen, Sue Kruger, Judy Monroe, Nancy Distler, Margaret Uhrhan and Cathy Barnhart.

Nation's Top Drum, Bugle Corps Meet In Competition Here Monday Night

The Granite City area will vibrate with blast of bugles and the roll of drums Monday night when the Tri-City Shrine Club brings six national competitive drum and bugle corps to the Granite City High School football field in the biggest charity event of the year.

It will be the first major show of this type to be held in Granite City. The corps units will be in Ohio for the International Competitive Meet over the weekend and then will come to Granite City for Monday's show at 7:30 p.m.

Sister Mary Thomas, administrator, of St. Elizabeth Hospital; Merrill Ottwein, president, and G. Rollin Henn, scout council commissoner of the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, and Avery Schermer, president of the Tri-City Shrine Club, will present awards to the winning three bands.

Visiting Units

Competing for the awards will be the St. Paul, Minn., Explorers; Garfield New Jersey Cadets; the Vanguards of Des Plaines, Ill.; Blue Readers of Materie, La.; the St. Patrick's Imperials of Milwaukee, Wis., and the Black Knights of Belleville.

An exhibition also will be given by the Bellettes of Belleville.

Proceeds of the show will be divided between St. Elizabeth Hospital, the local Boy Scout Council and the Shrine Philanthropy.

Tickets are $2 each and may be obtained from Scout leaders, Shrine members, at St. Elizabeth Hospital or the local Boy Scout Service Center, 1338a Niedringhaus Ave.

For those who like fine music, great marching in unison, and precision at its best, this will be a top show to see and at the same time aid a charity of the Quad-Cities area, Schermer noted today.

The Tri-City Shrine Club, which is the second largest of the 35 in the Ainad jurisdiction, has nearly 500 members.

Quad-City Mental Health Clinic Budget Studied

The board of directors of the Quad-Cities Mental Health Clinic in Granite City is considering a proposed budget of $387,023 for the fiscal year beginning Dec. 1.

The budget includes a request for $142,573 from Madison County through the county's mental health (708) board and $215,130 from the state. The remainder would be $29,320 from patient fees, donations and other sources.

The budget shows a $774 increase in the amount requested from the county last year, but is $36,617 higher than the $150,856 which actually will have been received from the county at the end of the fiscal year.

3 New Positions

The 1972-73 budget calls for the funding of three new positions at the local mental health care facility, $8,000 for a registered nurse, $10,500 for a psychiatric social worker and $5,000 for a part-time recreational therapist.

The additions will bring the total request for the county's share of salaries of clinic employes to $93,105. Other expenses include $5,400 for rent, $26,319 for secretarial salaries, $1,500 for office supplies and $3,000 for telephone service.

Phone Cost Questioned

Ralph Yemm, chairman of the 708 board, has requested that the telephone appropriation be reconsidered but William Daumueller, clinic director, explained that the clinic is required to call many clinics in the state to receive or give out information on patients.

He said the $144.85 per month service charge and the $104.20 per month average for long-distance telephone calls is the lowest that can reasonably be expected, due to the clinic's location and recent telephone rate increases.

Determine Needs

Summarizing the budget, William Kinder, chairman of the board of directors of the local clinic, explained that the budget does meet the needs of the Quad-Cities.

"It is up to us to determine what needs exist and to create programs to meet those needs. When we then ask the county to help finance the programs and the request is turned down, at least we have tried," Kinder explained.

Allan Claus, a 708 board member, asked if the clinic could continue on an appropriation similar to the funds actually received last year. Kinder responded, "I don't think that is a proper way to run a clinics."

Ask For Cut

Claus also asked if clinic directors would be willing to eliminate the three new positions created in the budget, thus saving $118,000. That request is being considered.

The local clinic directors have been given copies of the budget and asked to study it for a vote Thursday, Sept. 7. Once the document has been approved by the local directors, it will face action by the 708 board, the Madison County Board's Health Institutions' committee and the full county board.

The county's share of last year's budget was slashed to $83,854 at one point, but the 708 board in February granted the Granite City and Alton facilities their full appropriation for the remainder of the year.

Free Lunch Program Revised for GC Schools

The Granite City Board of Education revised the policy used to determine children eligible to receive free lunches during a meeting Monday night.

The school district has long recognized the need for helping meet the nutritional needs of students, and a well-balanced, nutritious lunch is served each school day at all schools in the district, administrators pointed out.

The charge to students who can pay is 45 cents in junior and senior high and 40 cents in elementary schools daily. However, since some families may find it difficult to pay the full price for their children, the school will provide these lunches free to those children determined eligible.

Dale C. Rea, assistant to the superintendent, is the authority responsible for making determinations.

Families who believe that their children may be eligible for free or reduced price lunches are urged to apply. Copies of the application form and information regarding procedures for application will be sent to each parent.

Additional copies may be obtained at any school or the complete district policy may be reviewed by any interested person at the Board of Education Office, 20th and Adams Streets.

The completed application, signed by an adult family member, should be sent to any school attended by a child in the family. Such applications will be reviewed within five days and the family will be notified in writing of the decision made.

Information provided on the application will be held in the strictest confidence. Decisions for approval will be based primarily on the family income level according to a national guideline used by participating schools throughout the United States and prescribed by the secretary of agriculture, as indicated below.

Any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for the lunches will also be considered. If a family is not satisfied with the decision made regarding their application, it may appeal the request to Vasil Eftimoff, director, pupil personnel services, who will review the application to try to make satisfactory arrangements.

The district policy will be applied fairly and uniformly to all children and is effective Aug. 29. Parents, who believe they may qualify under the income guidelines below are urged by the board to apply as it is the desire of the district to reach every child who may need the benefit of a nutritious lunch at school.

The guidelines by family size and annual gross income follows: 1, $2,420; 2, $3,180; 3, $3,940; 4, $4,680; 5, $5,380; 6, $6,070; 7, 6,700; 8, $7,330; 9, $7,900; 10, $8,470; 11, $9,040; 12, $9,610; and each additional family member, add $570.

Children from families receiving ADC payments also are eligible for the program but must file an application. Identification cards provided by the welfare department must be filed with the school attended.

Only one application per family should be filed regardless of the number of schools attended by the children in the family.

Families wishing to apply before the opening of school may pick up applications at the Board of Education Office. To better protect the anonymity of children receiving free lunches this year, weekly tickets will be mailed to eligible families. Identical weekly cards will be sold in the schools.

County Zoning Board Approves 4, Denies 3 Bids

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals has recommended approval of four requests for special use permits and zoning changes and denial of three involving Nameoki and Chouteau Townships. The recommendations are subject to approval by the County Board at its meeting Wednesday morning.

Receiving approval were petitions of:

Gilbert O. Gilliland to erect a duplex in an R-3 one-family residence district in Chouteau Township.

Carlos Don and Viola Mae Bettis to build and sell campers in an R 2 one-family residence district in Chouteau Township with the stipulation that no advertising signs be permitted on the property.

Patricia L. Green and Aileen Green to place a mobile home in an R-4 single-family residence district for the duration of the lifetime of Aileen Green and for their occupancy only.

Peggy Parker to place a mobile home in an R-4 single-family residence district for the sole occupancy of her family.

The appeals board, which last week recommended denial of a request by Lloyd Mouser to rezone five acres north of Arlington Heights for an apartment complex, gave approval to another petition by Mouser and J. B. Frey to rezone a tract of land in Helvetia Township from agricultural district to R-2 one-family residence district.

The board also recommended denial of petitions of Jack and Jeanette Pinkston to operate a hobby shop in their home garage in an R-3 one-family residence district in Chouteau Township, and John C. Webb to place a mobile home in a R-4 single-family residence district in Nameoki Township.

Changes in registering children for the pre-school classes of the Granite City Park District were announced today by Harold Brown, superintendent of parks.

All enrollments will be made at the park office after 9 a.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 15. This year there will not be any registrations taken over the telephone.

Children must be 4 years old before Nov. 1 to be eligible for the classes that are conducted at the Community Center, 822 Niedringhaus Ave. Plans are to hold four classes with approximately 35 pupils in each. The classes meet twice a week.

Lovejoy Library Given $8,211 for Resources

Lovejoy Library at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has received grants totalling $8,211 under provisions of the Higher Education Act of 1965 for purchase of resources for its East St. Louis Center library. The award was made through the 1972 college library resources program for acquisition of higher education library materials only.

Application was made for the grants to the Division of Library Programs of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare early in 1972. Eligibility was based on evaluation of the application by a consultant team, the amount of matching funds reported in the application.

Ina Peabody Sledge, librarian at the East St. Louis Center, will evaluate and select materials to be purchased with the funds.

PRIZE WINNER. Mrs. Dorothy Williams, 2644 E. 24th St., receives warranty papers for a refrigerator-freezer presented by C. J. Gibbs, manager of the W. T. Grant store appliance department. Mrs. Williams was awarded the prize in a 'Heart's Desire' promotion by the appliance department.

GC Tax Collection to End Friday, Venice Next Week

Collection of personal and real estate property taxes will end locally in Granite City tomorrow, and in Venice township Tuesday, to complete the 1972 tax collection period in all four townships of the Quad-City area.

Paul Rutledge, Granite City treasurer and township tax collector, said the collection period will end here tomorrow at 5 p.m. at his office in the city hall. In Venice township, Frank Reidelberger Jr., township collector, said the tax collection period will end at the end of the day's business at the township tax office, Fourth Street and Madison Avenue, Madison.

Edgar Patrick, town collector of Nameoki township, and Charles Lexow, collector for Chouteau township, said they are balancing their tax books following the close of local tax collections last week, and will turn over the books to the county treasurer within a matter of days.

Rutledge said that as of Tuesday, his office had collected a total of $3,187,193 in real estate and personal taxes, plus $36,745 in personal property tax that will be placed in escrow pending a Supreme Court ruling on the validity of a 1970 referendum that knocked out the personal tax as it applies to individuals.

Distributes Funds

The city treasurer said he also is distributing all taxes he collects instead of turning the money over to George Musso, county treasurer, for distribution from the county office.

At Venice township, Reidelberger said he intends to withhold all tax funds from the county treasurer until a court ruling is obtained in a suit filed by the city of Venice challenging a charge made by the county treasurer for tax assessment and extension work.

Rutledge was charged this year with collection of $10,984,773 in local taxes, the largest single year's extension in the city's history. In Nameoki Township, taxpayers were billed for a total of $2,087,599 and Venice Township was charged with payment of $3,078,787 in local taxes. The tax bill in Chouteau township was $1,299,089.

Triple Dance Program Sunday to Aid John Young, Who Faces Blindness

A proclamation declaring Sunday as "John Allen Young Day" was issued this week by Mayor Donald Partney who urged all Granite Cityans to participate in a weekend benefit program and to contribute to the John Young Benefit Fund.

The proclamation followed action by the city council Monday night in approval of a resolution urging area residents to take part in a citywide dance program Sunday. All proceeds are to go to the John Young fund.

The Sunday program will include dancing at three locations, beginning at 2 p.m., at the Granite City Moose Lodge, Nineteenth and Adams Streets; Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1300 home at 2044 Washington Ave., and at the Tri-City American Legion Post 113 Home, 24th Street and Midison Avenue.

In his proclamation, Mayor Partney said:

"Whereas this youngster is 8 years old and he needs as much help as possible from all citizens of Granite City.

"Whereas, we the citizens of Granite City should give all the help within our power to help this boy.

"Whereas all donations will be accepted at the Police Department in Granite City.

"I, Donald Partney, mayor of the city of Granite City, do hereby proclaim Sunday, Aug. 13, as John Young Day."

Poplar dance music will be featured at the Moose Lodge with the Occasions playing from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.; followed by Wayne Scanell and the Casuals from 5 p.m. until 6:30 p.m. the Tri-Tones from 6:30 p.m. until 8 p.m.; and the Nu Tones beginning at 8 p.m.

Country-Western fans will find "pickin' and singin' " filling the air at the Tri-City Legion Home as Bud North and his Country Kats start the foot stompin' at 2 p.m. They will be followed at 4 p.m. by Mississippi Tom and the Valley Boys; Howard Bolton and the Kountry Beats from 5 p.m. until 6:30 p.m.; Carol Lea and the Blue Moons from 6:30 p.m. until 8 p.m. and Bob Hastings and his Boys on stage at 8 p.m.

The VFW will host mod-style rock beginning at 2 p.m. with Johnnie Rondo and the Desperados until 4 p.m.; Rasputins 4 p.m. until 6 p.m.; Odoinis 6 p.m. until 8 p.m.; and the Poisons from 8 p.m. on.

Dave Clark, president of the Madison Lions club is the general chairman of the cooperative dance program.

Tickets costing $1 each and admitting one person to a dance of his or her choice, may be obtained in advance from members of the sponsoring organizations; or the Granite City, Madison and Venice police departments, Clark said. Tickets also may be obtained at the door at any of the three dances.

Johnny, a fourth-grade pupil this fall at Niedringhaus School, is the victim of retinitis pigmentosa, an hereditary eye disease for which there is no known cure and always results in total blindness.

Strengthening Family Goal of Reunion Day

Sunday will mark the fifth anniversary of Family Reunion Day, a day which families are encouraged to plan activities together in an effort to strengthen family ties.

The annual event, sponsored by Kiwanis International and the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pa., first was celebrated in 1968 when President Lyndon B. Johnson proclaimed the second Sunday in August as a day for families to become better acquainted.

In a proclamation establishing the special day, Johnson said, "I urge all the people to support those actions that will strengthen the family and to celebrate this day with such ceremonies as will re-emphasize our continuing belief that family life is the highest and most enduring product of our civilization."

Hope Is Chairman

Comedian Bob Hope has been selected as the national chairman of the day. Hope supported the day saying, "Since the family is the basis of society, its emphais and dramatization cannot help but reaffirm its importance . . . and act as a powerful weapon against lowlessness, disorder, corruption and moral laxity. Family Reunion Day is a positive step toward the solution of these problems.

Among the family activities suggested by Kiwanis International and the Freedoms Foundation are picnics, outings, dinners, the development of family research projects and using the day to plan family activities on birthday, anniversaries, patriotic days and other significant dates. The celebration is observed throughout the United States and Canada.

EDWARD'S ECONOMY FLOOR CENTER

1909 Delmar—Granite City—Phone 452-1380

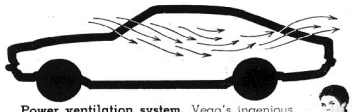

IT'S EASY TO MAKE AN ECONOMY CAR THAT SELLS FOR A FEW DOLLARS LESS THAN VEGA.

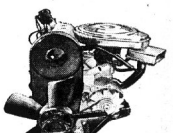

JUST LEAVE OUT THESE IMPORTANT FEATURES:

Side guard beams. Each Vega door is bolstered by a hefty steel beam that looks and works pretty much like the guard rails you see along a highway. You can't see them, but take our word they're there.

Power ventilation system. Vega's ingenious way to keep outside air continuously circulating inside even when the car is standing still and your windows are rolled up.

The engine. A specially designed overhead cam, aluminum block, 4-cylinder power plant. Big words to match an impressive performance. It delivers far more horsepower for its size than other little cars plus gas mileage that's right up there with the best of them.

Disc Brakes. Each front wheel of a Vega sports a big standard 10-inch disc brake for smooth stops.

Hidden windshield antenna. Included when you order a factory installed AM or AM/FM radio.

Full foam bucket seats. No half-way measures here—full deep foam for your bottom and back, tapering up to form a built in head restraint. Very sporty, as well as comfortable, to go along with the rest of the interior.

Coil springs. Four of them, count 'em, one at every wheel. They're part of the reason for Vega's exceptionally comfortable ride. And if you've ever ridden in other little cars, you'll appreciate what we mean.

Flush-and-dry rocker panels. See those tiny arrows? Assume they're raindrops gushing through your hood and down through your rocker panels to wash away salt and other sediment. Now assume they're little zephyrs of air drying up all that rain. One very effective way to fight ugly rust.

The map pocket. No big thing, really. But it's indicative of the many little touches you don't have to sacrifice in order to drive our little car.

The battery. Every little car has one, obviously, but only Vega has a sealed side-terminal energizer-type battery. Which means your terminals will probably never corrode.

Double panel roof. One steel roof firmly attached to another steel roof to make Vega a little stronger on the outside and a little quieter on the inside.

Remember, buckling your seat and shoulder belts is an idea you can live with.

New Face in Winners Circle at Cycle Race

Motorcycle racer Mike Kidd surprised the experts Tuesday night as he defeated a field of top national riders in the feature race at the Tri-City Speedway.

Among those losing was Robert E. Lee of Fort Worth, Tex., the winner of the last three consecutive features here and the victor in four of the seven races this season.

Others who fell to Kidd included Gene Romero of Los Angeles, Calif., the 1970 grand national champion, and Neil Keen, Tri-City track champion last year.

Lee accepted a challenge from Roy Higgins to race while sitting backwards on their motorcycles. Lee defeated Higgins, an expert at backwards riding, but Higgins stole the show, riding backwards over a large hump normally used by the flagman.

Donald Wiley of Chicago had the fastest time-trial with a 15.53-second lap on the quarter-mile.

Berry Gerald won the first heat, trailed by Lee and Fred Smith. Glen Spinar was victorious in the second heat with Charles Chapple of Flint, Mich., second and Wiley third.

Kidd took the checkered flag first in the third heat with Charles Seale of Lantana, Fla., and Keen close behind.

The elimination heat was won by Darrell Hurst of Houston, Tex., with Romero and Robert Deiss Jr. of Pekin trailing.

Gerald, Seale and Fred Smith earned the top three spots in the first semi-feature event while Kidd won the second semi-feature followed by Lee and Paul Pressgrove of Topeka, Kan.

In the feature race, Kidd defeated the second place bike of Gerald, and Seale crossed the finish line third. Trailing were Lee, Ray Chapple, Smith, Keen and Charles Chapple.

A large field of well-known national professional racers is expected Tuesday night as national races will be held in Illinois during the week and most of the racers are expected to include Tri-City in their Mid-western tour.

Wild Turkey Business Is Expanding in Downstate Area

By RAY SERATI
Copley News Service

The wild turkey business in Illinois could be expanding.

Officials in the State Conservation Department report that landowners and various outdoor clubs from throughout Illinois have been inquiring about the possibility of getting wild turkeys stocked on their property. The response on trying to get the wild turkey flocks increased after this past spring's hunt. During the spring hunt Conservation Department officials report that hunter interest ran high.

But just how soon the wild turkeys can be obtained for stocking on the private owned lands remains in doubt. Conservation Department officials feel that the wild turkey flocks should be built up on the public property first before allowing the stocking of private lands. Even if private lands are to be stocked, before this can be done there must be a determination as to how much public use will be granted on the lands.

At one time, the Illinois area was quite abundant with wild turkeys. However, down through the years the wild turkeys left the Illinois landscape. In the 1950s the Conservation Department started releasing game farm turkeys in hopes that the flocks would develop themselves in the wild areas of the state. But after a great deal of testing and searching the game farm reared turkeys could not catch hold in the wilds.

So in 1959 the Conservation Department imported some wild turkeys from other states. Jack Calhoun, who is in the Wildlife Resources Division of the department, took on the task of trying to re-establish the bird in Illinois.

So in 1959 some 65 wild turkeys were released in the Shawnee National Forest. Calhoun kept a close watch on the flock and it soon began developing.

Through persistence the turkey flock developed and in the past two years a spring hunting season has been held in Southern Illinois. Apparently the timber area of the southern section of the state is suitable habitat for the turkeys.

Presently Conservation Department officials feel there is a huntable flock in the Alexander, Jackson, Pope and Union County area of Southern Illinois.

Duff Hurls in All-Star Game

Tom Duff, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Duff, 1651 Seventh St., Madison, pitched the fifth and sixth innings last night in Busch Stadium in the Illinois-Missouri Khoury League All-Star game, which Illinois won 8-3. The game is scheduled to be on local TV at 1 p.m. Aug. 20.

Young Duff is in his fourth year of Madison Khoury League play. He is a pitcher for the Madison Lions team and holds a 4-3 record.

At Busch stadium, he fanned three batters, made an unassisted out on a pop up, allowed two hits and walked none.

He will be in the eighth grade at Madison Junior High School.

His favorite baseball teams are the Mets and Cardinals and his two favorite players are Joe Torre and Lou Brock.

Prep Grid Workouts Set Aug. 23

Football practice for members of the Illinois High School Association officially gets under way on Wednesday, Aug. 23. Some schools will issue equipment and arrange to have players take their required physical examinations at an earlier date but under the rules of the association, no school may organize or practice its team before the second Wednesday preceding Labor Day.

Players must have engaged in a minimum of 90 minutes of actual field practice on each of 14 days preceding the first interschool game or scrimmage and no school may play its opening game earlier than Friday, Sept. 15. These rules were adopted by the members of the association for the protection of the players and to promote equality in competition among the schools. This fall about 555 high schools belonging to the IHSA will participate in football.

Aug. 23 is also the beginning date for practice in fall baseball, cross country, golf and soccer. In these sports, however, there is no required amount of practice before the first interschool contest may be conducted. Schools may conduct their first contest in these sports as early as the fifth school day after the opening of the fall school term.

About 400 IHSA member schools will participate in cross country this fall, while nearly 70 will engage in soccer competition. Only a few schools throughout the state conduct programs in fall baseball or golf.

Spy Thriller Marked by Philosophy

THESE LONELY VICTORIES; by Elliot West; G. P. Putnam's Sons; 318 pages; $6.95.

Reviewed By CHARLES OHL
Copley News Service

Berlin—the name has magic for writers, especially those who probe into the murky world of big power espionage. Berlin is a focal point of East-West tensions, a cold war city divided by an ugly Wall and barbed wire, a place where spy spies on spy.

This is the setting for Elliot West's cast of characters: Brian Colman, a tough-minded agent for the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency; Michael Stevenson, his 52-year-old boss who is convinced that Soviet foreign policy "constituted the world's most purposeful evil"; Adele Fischer, whose husband, an agent for the East Germans, was killed by Colman; and Col. Emmering, an East German intelligence officer.

Moved by compassion or guilt, Colman intervenes in a spy-for-spy swap that would have returned Adele Fischer to a grim fate in East Germany. Instead, he spirits her away from CIA custody and embarks on a summer-long flight that includes a strange interlude in the idyllic castle home of a former Nazi.

But guilt over a fellow agent Colman has abandoned to his fate in an East German prison eventually leads him into a desperate bid to free the man.

Low-key up to a point, West's climax is a shocker.

Aside from writing a thoroughly engrossing spy thriller, West in this novel is clearly questioning the necessity for espionage at all. Is it a game with no purpose, as some members of the U. S. Senate feel?

Is it absolutely vital if Western democracy is to withestand the menace of communism, as CIA boss Stevenson feels? Or is the world of espionage somewhere in the middle?

To Adele Fischer, espionage is a pointless waste of human life.

"No one believes in dying anymore, Mr. Stevenson — if they ever did. There is never anything worth that sacrifice, not to the one who dies . . . not politics, not systems."

Unshakably convinced that Western democracy is the best system, Stevenson would pay the cost of human life to protect it—although "when a man dies, I don't shake my head philosophically and light a cigar."

Col. Emmering, Stevenson's opponent, is equally convinced of the rightness of his cause—and makes a good case for it. Novelist West greatly enriches his book by avoiding drawing the usual portrait of a rabid Communist; Emmering is very human, and very persuasive.

But the essential point of this novel seems to be: does any cause justify human death? Would the world be pretty much the same even if all the killing stopped "These Lonely Victories" presents a good case for both. Take your choice.

Ironworkers, Builders Still in Negotiations

Negotiations between striking Ironworkers' Local 392 and the Southern Illinois Builders Association were to continue today at the St. Louis offices of the U.S. Mediation and Conciliation Service.

The strike, which began Aug. 2, has tied up an estimated $300 million in construction in the Illinois portion of St. Louis metropolitan area, including work on a new high school in Granite City, repair work to the Granite City High School auditorium, a $6 million improvement project at the Chain of Ricks locks, expansion of the Kroger Food Store and blast furnace repairs and improvements at Granite City Steel Co.

The two parties met Monday when union representatives rejected a package from the SIBA which included a 35-cent-per-hour increase in fringe benefits. The union is asking 50-cents per hour increase in benefits.

The SIBA package also included revisions in the reporting pay clause ad the concrete pour watchers' clause.

An SIBA spokesman explained that the builders want the right to notify workers not to report for work when inclement weather halts construction. At present, Ironworks receive one hour pay if they appear for work, even if they have been notified not to report, he said.

Seek New Rules

The builders also are asking to pay each ironworker only for the hours he actually is on the job, the spokesman said. He explained that under the former contract, if a worker is asked to report for work and arrives on the job site at 10 a.m., he must be paid from 8 a.m., he said.

The proposed revisions in the concrete pour watchers' clause call for ironworkers to test steel supports while concrete is being poured rather than to stand and watch as was allowed in the old contract. The builders also ask that the ironworkers be allowed to work on other projects at the site when the workers are not needed in the areas where concrete is being poured.

Ironworkers striking in St. Louis also have tied up construction on that side of the Mississippi River, but officials said the strikes were not related. In St. Louis, the union is demanding a hiring hall and new work rules.

The SIBA Iso is involved in contract negotiations with Carpenters' District Council of Madison County and Vicinity and Carpenters' Tri-County District Council.

15-Minute Meeting

A negotiating session with federal mediators yesterday lasted only 15 minutes and there were no tangible results, a union spokesman said.

Te carpenters are asking for a 40-cent increase in fringe benefits. Te District Council of Madison County is working on a 15-day contract extension which expires at midnight Aug. 15.

The eight locals represented by the council reportedly are taking strike votes at their meetings. As of today, five unions had voted. Results have not been released. The union members have relinquished the right for retroactive pay to Aug. 1.

The Carpenters' Tri-County District Council members are working without a contract while negotiations are continuing.

Federal mediators reportedly have requested the SIBA and both carpenters groups to keep Monday and Tuesday open for negotiations although definite plans have not been made.

News Notes

There are about 1,200 hourly and salaried employes at the local plant. Both the division and parent company have suffered operating losses in recent months.

"We are presently operating at one-third of capacity and that imbalance has to be corrected," company officials said today.

Plans for closing the foundry department for about one month are said to be "almost definite" while the possibility of a similar temporary shutdown in part or all of the cleaning and finishing departments is less certain.

Under a contract with United Steelworkers of America Local 1022, the division was required to give 25 days notice to union members before revoking vacations. For this reason, such notice was given this week instead of waiting for a final decision on whether to remain open or temporarily shut down.

Meetings between GSI officials, union representatives and supervisors have been held all this week and were to continue today and this evening. A union spokesman said today it appears that all contract terms are being met.

The company has lost a contract it sought with the New York City Transit Authority for production of 1,500 wheel assembly trucks for 750 railroad cars, the Press-Record learned today.

The $16 million to $18 million contract would have provided work at the local plant for two and a half years, officials estimated.

GSI has won most NYCTA contracts for the past 22 years and the new contract was being counted on in future production planning.

The loss of the contract is not responsible for October shutdown plans, a company spokesman said. Work on the railroad carriages would not have started until early 1973, he said.

No credentials challenge of the six new Illinois members of the Democratic national committee developed this week in Washington; the committee Tuesday night chose R. Sargent Shriver to run for vice-president on the presidential ticket headed by Senator George McGovern.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson said he had planned a challenge but was "deceived" on the procedures by McGovern supporters eager to achieve full Daley political backing.

Mississippi River Festival attendance soared past the 130,000 mark for the season last night when the Emerson, Lake and Palmer rock music group from England entertained.

The official attendance count through 11 p.m. Wednesday was 26,140 and it was estimated that more than 30,000 sought to reach the concert; a 13-mile-long traffic tieup was reported. On Tuesday night at the MRF tent-and-hillside at SIUE, blues singer and guitarist B. B. King attracted an audience of 5,100.

Bloice Yount of Edwardsville, governor hopeful, and other American Party candidates apparently will not appear on the Nov. 7 ballot in Illinois. The required 25,000 petitions had not been filed at Springfield by the deadline at 5 p.m. Monday.

Nuclear Power To Start in 1980

Illinois Power Company's projected 1980 start of nuclear production of electricity was outlined to Granite City Rotarians on Tuesday by Leonard J. Koch, IP manager of nuclear projects. He was introduced by Carl E. Mathias, service area manager of the utility and Rotary President Richard West presided.

Koch said water recreation, fishing and wildlife programs are receiving major emphasis in the planning of a power plant near Clinton, Ill., situated midway between Decatur and Bloomington.

Board authorization was given in February and bid specifications for nuclear steam equipment are to be ready by October.

Safety and environmental analyses and reports are to be finished by April 1973, with two years allowed for federal study and licensing and four to five years for construction and testing, the club was told.

The nuclear plant is clean environmentally and there is a fully adequate uranium fuel supply, Koch said, adding that the nuclear process is essential if environmental and power needs are to be met.

Many programs to fight varied forms of U. S. pollution depend on the availability of electric power, he reported.

THEFT FROM AUTO

SPECIAL PROBLEMS OF ELDERLY

The growing minority of the elderly face special problems. For most there is a struggle for economic survival; for many there is a struggle for some social status.

As a result of economic, medical, and industrial progress, a large proportion of our population now reaches old age. However, such progress has made the elderly a more dependent group, changing their status, traditional functions and roles.

Some of the changes are as follows:

—More of the elderly now live in urban separate households instead of rural multi-generation family situations.

— Individually owned family farm or business has been replaced by corporate ownership and a wage economy.

— Older persons are being pushed out of the labor force by mandatory retirement and the growing availability of retirement income. In addition, technology has eliminated the need for certain skills.

— The elderly are becoming more dependent on retirement income that depends on social policy decision and the willingness of the younger population to support such programs.

These changes tend to remove many elderly from the mainstream of society and into a subculture of poverty and social uselessness.

DIETING EASIER IN SUMMER

Whether your preference is hot pants or Bermuda shorts, you'll want to look your best when you shed your winter clothes in favor of summer attire. So you may need to consider dieting.

It's really easier to diet in the summer because of outdoor activities and the abundance of low-calorie fresh fruits and vegetables on the market.

Many people begin to diet, and faithfully record everything they eat, tallying the calories at the end of the day. However, that system can be a drag, so why not take the easy way.

Try following the daily food guide. Select lower-calorie foods from each of the four basic food groups: meat, milk, fruits and vegetables, and bread and cereal. Most vegetables and unsweetened fruits are low in calories and high in vitamins A and C. Include foods that have been processed without extra high-calorie ingredietns; for example, avoid creamed vegetables and fruits packed in heavy syrup.

You can get a hint of a food's caloric value by its flavor and texture. For example, a food that is sweet or sticky or greasy-crips. Low-calorie animal protein foods include chicken, eggs and most fish.

Another important part of weight-control program is exercising. Exercise helps tone muscles, increases the blood supply to organs and tissues and helps burn up calories that might otherwise be stored as fat in the body. With the exception of football players, very few people are active enough during the winter months to burn off their caloric intake.

Hopeful of Airport Decision Soon—Moody

Hope for prompt resolution of the metropolitan airport site issue was voiced Tuesday night to the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce board by Eugene Moody, executive director of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

He said airport uncertainty complicates rapid transit, highway and other regional planning.

Moody outlined the seven-year East-West Gateway history and reviewed federal directives under which it is moving to play a bigger role in land use and transportation decisions.

Chamber President Albert W. Trtanj appointed Melvin C. Wilmsmeyer, Paul H. Kelly, Frank Rea, B. J. Davis and Bill H. Terrell to nominate Chamber board candidates.

Dr. Trtanj announced that Attorney Leo H. Konzen will head a detailed study of alternatives in obtaining junior college instruction. The study is being broadened to include a cross-section of the public.

Granite City Opticians and the Business and Professional Women were approved as Chamber members. Dr. Trtanj discussed the membership dues structure and Treasurer Allen L. Jessee reviewed finances.

C. E. Blankenship presented a film and recording, "Your Commitment to America," and it was decided to make it available to other groups. Gene H. Sternberg, Congressional action chairman, spoke on the topic and related it to citizenship and election issues.

AFL-CIO Backs Democrats and Two Republicans

Delegates to the 23rd Congressional District, Committee on Political Education, AFL-CIO, met in Belleville during the weekend. Representing AFL-CIO unions throughout Madison and St. Clair Counties, they voted unanimously to affirm actions of the State COPE and to endorse candidates.

Buddy W. Davis, president, presided and gave a report on the national Democratic convention. He gave first-hand observations as a delegate as well as his own impressions of "the treatment of labor's representatives."

In addition, the delegates approved arrangements for the annual COPE dinner-dance at Augustine's Restaurant, Belleville, Sept. 23. Tickets will be $10 each and the profit will be used for registration and "get-out-the-vote" activities.

President Davis announced that special emphasis will be placed on electing endorsed candidates for Congress and the state legislature, in light of the national AFL-CIO's refusal to endorse Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates.

Endorsement List

The six statewide Democratic nominees were endorsed—Roman C. Pucinski for U. S. senator, Daniel Walker for governor, Thomas G. Lyons for attorney general, Michael J. Howlett for secretary of state and Jean Barringer for state comptroller.

Also backed statewide in this district were four Democratic candidates—Melvin Price in the 23rd District, Kenneth J. Gray in the 24th, George E. Shipley in the 22nd and Robert S. O'Shea in the 20th.

Illinois General Assembly 56th District candidates endorsed by the 23rd District COPE were Sam M. Vadalabene (D) for senator and Horace L. Calvo (D) and Leland J. Kennedy (D) for representatives.

In the Madison County recorder of deeds race, the group backed both Ronald P. Lucas (D) and Ralph Astorian (R), saying "both candidates are endorsed as highly qualified with good labor backgrounds."

Also endorsed in this county were Nicholas G. Byron (D) for state's attorney, Coroner Robert Thomas (R), Auditor John L. Kraynak (D) and Circuit Clerk Willard V. Portell (D).

OUTSTANDING 4-H MEMBERS who have won recognition for items of apparel they created for competetive judging at the county fair. Shown wearing the prize-winning clothing are Joann Kambitch, 58'ers Club; Ann Marie Uram, Moonspinners 4-H Club; Mariann Yevin, holding a napkin and place mat set, Joan Hollenbeck and Janet Bunselmeyer, all members of the 58'ers Club. Articles made by Miss Kambitch and Miss Yevin will be entered at the state fair Aug. 11 to 20.

Ticket System Adopted for GC School Lunch Program

Weekly lunch tickets will be sold this year in Granite City Schools, according to a proposal accepted by the Board of Education at its meeting Monday night.

The district's new data processing center can prepare weekly lunch cards for every student in the system. The cards will be provided to each school, filed alphabetically, to be sold each Monday by cafeteria personnel before school to students wanting to pay for their lunches by the week.

The lunches are 45 cents for junior and senior high school students and 40 cents for elementary school students.

Free lunches will be provided students from families unable to pay the costs, and these will receive a month's supply of tickets identical to those of other students through the mail.

The card system will provide compliance with an anonymity provision of the federal guidelines for the free lunch program, administrators pointed out, and failure to provide anonymity protection would mean the loss of reimbursement, which was about $198,000 last year.

Miss Deborah E. Taylor, Lyle W. Parker Are Wed

The wedding of Miss Deborah E. Taylor, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verlin B. Taylor, 2901 Cayuga Ave., and Lyle W. Parker, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Parker, 2110 Ohio Ave., was solemnized at 7 p.m. Aug. 5 at the West 22nd Street Baptist Church.

Ron Joyce sang "Wither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer" preceding the evening ceremony performed by the Rev. Thomas Bray.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Taylor wore a bridal gown fashioned of white satin. The Empire bodice featured tiny pleats accented with a delicate lace ruffle that formed a V on the front and was repeated on the standup collar.

Val lace ruffles cuffed the long puffed sleeves and formed the hemline of the A-line silhouette skirt that flowed gently into a chapel train.

She wore a camelot hat of Venise lace and ribbon to secure a triple-tiered veil of bridal illusion. Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations and satin streamers tied in love knots.

Honor attendant, Miss Patti Taylor, a sister of the bride, was attired in a yellow organza over taffeta formal length gown. Designed in an Empire style, the high rise waistline was enhanced with a band of Venise lace that also created a bolero effect on the bodice.

The long puffed sleeves ended at the wrists with lace cuffs.

Miss Cathy Rippy and Miss Deborah Lucas, a niece of the groom, wore identical styled gowns as the maids of honor. Miss Rippy chose mint and Miss Lucas appeared in peach.

All attendants wore a profile headpiece of organza petals to hold in place their nose-tip veils. Each held a bouquet of white carnations tipped in shades to match their dresses.

Linda Andrews, a niece of the bride, was gowned in an aqua organza over bridal satin frock. White lace and aqua velvet ribbon trimmed the Empire waistline and the puffed sleeves.

She wore an aqua organza and white daisy headpiece and carried a miniature bouquet of aqua and white carnations.

Mark Parker, a nephew of the groom, served as the ringbearer.

Roger Downs, Dwight Grizzard, a cousin of the bride, Ernie Bray and James Matheny, a brother-in-law of the groom, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Mrs. Phillip Andrews and her daughter Phyllis presided at the guest book at a reception given in the church hall immediately following the service.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Taylor wore a pink A-line double-knit dress with white accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Parker, appeared in a peach double knit dress. White accessories complemented her ensemble. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

The newly married couple are graduates of Granite City High School. Mrs. Parker is employed part-time by Atlas Sales Co. and her husband works at Snyder's Service Station.

MR. AND MRS. PATRICK J. MONAHAN, who were married at St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Springfield, Ill. The bride is the former Miss Donna Faye Watkins, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Watkins of Mount Olive, Ill., former residents of Madison.

Miss Donna Faye Watkins Married In Springfield

Miss Donna Faye Watkins, 917 S. Eighth St., Springfield, Ill., formerly of Madison, became the bride of Patrick J. Monahan of Springfield, at noon on June 17 at St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

The Rev. Victor Kaltenbach officiated at the double ring ceremony at the Springfield church.

Parents of the former Miss Watkins are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Watkins of Rural Route One, Mount Olive, Ill., who formerly resided in Madison.

Given in marriage by her brother, Bill Watkins, the bride wore a formal length gown of white Chantilly lace. Fashioned with an Empire bodice that featured a square neckline and long lace-puffed sleeves, the dress had a slightly gathered skirt.

A crescent shaped headpiece of matching lace secured the long mantilla veil edged with a wide border of lace. She carried a bouquet of white daisies festooned with long green streamers.

Miss Marlene Jubelt, was maid of honor and Miss Vicki Dowell, served as bridesmaid. Their frocks were designed alike with an Empire waistline accented with a daisy trim, short-puffed sleeves and long full skirts.

The honor attendant was in yellow taffeta and the bridesmaid chose a pastel green. Little Christina Graves, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl and wore a dress in similiar design in an orange shade.

Each held a bouquet of daisies, pom pons and baby breath in colors to match their costumes.

Attending the groom as best man was Lawrence Schaefer. Buddy Watkins was the groomsman and Larry Watkins and Pat Beaghan served as ushers.

A reception was given at the Washington Park pavilion and the newly married couple left for a wedding trip to the Ozarks. They are now residing at 1116 Percy Ave. in Springfield.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Gillespie Community High School and is employed with the Department of Conservation. Her husband was graduated in 1964 from St. Gregorys School in Shawnee, Okla. He works for the F. W. Woolworth Co.

BPW Officers Attend Convention

Mrs. Pauline Weir, president of the local BPW Club, and Mrs. Verna Lengyel, parliamentarian of the local club and State Foundation chairman, were among 3,000 career women representing every state in the nation plus the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands at the annual convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

The 53rd annual meeting was held at the Chalfonte-Haddon Hall in Atlantic City.

The convention keynoter was Miss Lisa Sergio of Washington, D.C., nationally known lecturer and author, who spoke on "New Dimensions for Feminism."

She urged women to bridge the differences in social, economic and political life. In her dramatic and hard-hitting address, Miss Sergio emphasized the importance of accepting the new opportunities now available to women.

The convention according to Mrs. Weir, focused direct attention on how women can help women and what can be done to assist states to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA), BPW's legislative priority.

Delegates and members heard speeches by key national figures on subjects of vital concern to the nation's employed women. In "Speaking Out," Congresswoman Martha Griffiths (D - Mich.) encouraged women to play a more active and meaningful role in the political process.

Mrs. Jayne Baker Spain of Washington, D.C., vice-chairman of the Civil Service Commission, highlighted the importance of "Women Helping Women." The major role of women as consumers was discussed by Mrs. Julia Montgomery Walsh of Washington, D.C., a member of the Board of the American Stock Exchange, in her talk, "Buying and Investing Wisely."

Dr. Paul Stephen Ello of Centerville, Va., Associate Professor at Georgetown University talked on "The Art of Motivation."

Both local representatives participated in business meetings, workshops, passage of the 1972-73 BPW legislative platform and the election of new 1972-73 natonal officers.

Mrs. Jeanne C. Squire of Berea, Ohio, took office as the new national president for 1972-73 at the closing ceremonies of the convention. Miss eJan McCarrey of Villa Grove, Ill., was elected as president-elect.

Next year's national convention is to be held in Puerto Rico on June 24-28, according to Mrs. Weir.

Grace Baptist Scene of Patterson-Price Wedding

Miss Mary Patricia Price and Daniel Lynn Patterson were married in an impressive candlelight ceremony on Aug. 4 at Grace Baptist Church.

The Rev. Louis W. Brinker performed with white baskets of blue 'mums and pink gladiolus. Candelabra with lighted white tapers were placed on each side of the altar and down the white-carpeted aisle. White satin bows and lily of the valley marked the family pews.

Mrs. Mary Parchment presided at the organ as Mrs. Norma Shields, an aunt of the bride, sang "We've Only Just Begun" and The Lord's Prayer.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James N. Price, 2542 Jerden Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Patterson, 2412 Benton St.

A floor length gown of white bridal satin designed with an Empire waist, short sleeves trimmed with fragile lace, that was repeated on the hem of the full skirt was worn by the bride as she was escorted down the aisle by her father.

An unusual headpiece created in the shape of a heart and embellished with tiny seed pearls held in place her full length veil of bridal illusion. She held an arrangement of white carnations, lily of the valley and pink sweetheart roses.

A sister of the groom, Miss Donna Patterson, was maid of honor and Miss Mindy Shields, a cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaid. Kara White and Robbie Doyle, cousins of the bride and groom were the flower girl and ringbearer.

They wore frocks fashioned of flocked nylon and large white picture hats trimmed with velvet ribbons to match their costumes. The honor attendant was in blue, and Miss Shields chose pink with the little flower girl in white. The latter carried a basket of flower petals. Each adult attendant carried a long-stemmed white rose tied with colored ribbons.

John Merk attended the groom as his best man. Everett White, a cousin of the groom, was groomsman and David Price and Jerry Patterson, brothers of the bridal couple, seated the guests.

A reception was given in the church fellowship hall after which the couple left for Bolivar, Mo. where they will make their home.

Both are graduates of Granite City High School. Mr. Patterson is a junior student at Southwest Baptist College, in Bolivar where he is studying for the ministry.

Secretary Earns Certified Rating

Mrs. Gail Foley, one of the most recent members of the Tri-Cities Chapter, The National Secretaries Association, Granite City, has received notification by the Institute for Certifying Secretaries that she successfully completed the Certified Professional Secretary Examination which she took last May, and is therefore qualified to be rated a CPS.

This test of professionalism for the secretary is similar to the lawyer's bar exam, and an accountant's Certified Public Accountant exam.

The Certified Professional Secretary Examination is a comprehensive 12-hour test that requires two days to complete. The six-part test reflects every aspect of secretarial skill and awards successful candidates the coveted CPS rating.

Although the examination is administtred annually the first Friday and Saturday in May by a department of NSA, the Institute for Certifying Secretaries, it is open to non-NSA members as well NSA members as long as they meet the necessary qualifications.

Deadline for qualifying to sit for the 1973 examination is Dec. 1, 1972. A $10 processing fee is required and the examination fee due on approval of candidacy, is $60. Candidates must take all six parts of the examination on the first attempt.

Once two parts are passed, the candidate has five years to complete the remaining parts. Interested applicants may write the Institute for Certifying Secretaries, 616 East 63rd St., Kansas City, Missouri 64110 for more information. NSA officials said.

Mrs. Foley is the wife of Ronald Foley. They reside at 2002 Vandalia, Collinsville. She is the secretary to Dave Seibel, division vice-president and director of the Checkerboard Foods Division, Ralston Purina Co.

With the certifying of Mrs. Foley, the total number of certified professional secretaries employed at Ralston Purina has risen to 10. There are about 9,000 CPS's in the United States.

This is the third CPS from the Tri-Cities Chapter. Mrs. Charlsie Vunovic successfully completed the examination in 1959 and Mrs. Eileen Davidson Lengyal became a CPS in 1963. Mrs. Lengyal now resides in Arizona, but Mrs. Vunovic remains an active charter member in the local chapter. Two other members of the chapter, Mrs. Mary Gain and Miss Janet Barberis both employes of Ralston Purina have also sat for the examination but have not yet passed all six sections.

Mrs. Foley, who graduated from Triad High School in St. Jacob, Illinois, received a BS degree in Secretarial Studies and Office Management from SIUE in 1967. She has been employed at Ralston Purina four years.

At a meeting of the Tri-Cities Chapter last week at the home of Mrs. Mary Sedekum, Edwardsville, special recognition was given to Mrs. Foley. A guest from Sao Paulo, Brizil, Miss Inez Calabrezi, who is spending a six-month vacation in the United States.

Miss Twila Edmonds, chapter president, called special attention to the Illinois Division Leadership Clinic which is being hosted by the Alton Chapter on Aug. 26th at the Bel Air East Motor Hotel, St. Louis, and urged the members to make plans to attend the Clinic.

A report on the Future Secretaries Association was given by Chairman Charlsie Vunovic, who announced that an FSA Committee meeting would be held at her home on Aug. 22, along with the faculty advisors and the new FSA Board of Directors, at which time plans will be formulated for the coming school year.

President Edmonds announced that next month's meeting will be on Sept. 7 at Charlie's restaurant in Granite City. Any secretary interested in attending the meting may contact hr at 876-7970.

Visitor Kostelanetz Recording Champion —45 Million Sales

ANDRE KOSTELANETZ

A magic name, Andre Kostelanetz, appears on the Mississippi River Festival summer concert schedule at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. He will be guest conductor of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra that night at SIUE.

Ever since Kostelanetz's first appearance before the American public, he has held a unique position in the music world.

Numerous citations were bestowed on him for having contributed much to the widening of the listening audience of classical music through his radio programs, which for many years were the principal musical attractions on the air.

He inaugurated the Promenade Concerts of the New York Philarmanic at Lincoln Center eight years ago. They are a direct result of the success which Kostelanetz had had with his special non-subscription concerts of the New York Philharmonic for the past 18 winter seasons.

They attracted a completely new audience and achieved a great deal of pioneering in concert presentation — playing to "standing room only" crowds.

Kostelanetz's name is known in practically every country in the world. He is called "the champion of recordings," and during the last 20 years the public has bought more than 45,000,000 Kostelanetz records.

He appears regularly as guest conductor of the important symphony orchestras in the United States, Canada and abroad.

In addition, he has introduced many American compositions in other countries and has commissioned works by outstanding American composers.

INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Jerre C. Henke, 2, of 2001 Beckwith St., Madison, complained of pains after his auto and another driven by Larry D. Johnson, Ferryville, Wis., were in an accident at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at Nameoki Road and E. 23rd Street. Johnson was charged with a right-of-way violation.

Fifth Dimension, Pianist Frager, Guest Conductor Kostelanetz at River Fest

It will be a busy weekend at the Mississippi River Festival tent-and-hillside arena on the SIUE campus.

The Fifth Dimension vocal group and songwriter and singer Bill Withers will entertain at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow.

At the final concerts by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra at the Mississippi River Festival this season, Associate Conductor Leonard Slatkin will conduct Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and Andre Kostelanetz will guest conduct on Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Soloists will include pianist Malcolm Frager on Saturday and xylophonist Yoichi Hiraoka and cellist John Sant'Ambrogio on Sunday night.

Slatkin will begin Saturday's program with "Homage to Haydn" by the contemporary composer Dello Joio, followed by Malcolm Frager's perofrmance of Schumann's Concerto in A minor for Piano and Orchestra.

Frager, a native of St. Louis, first made international headlines in 1960 as winner of both the Leventritt Award and the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium International Piano Competition.

Completing the Saturday night program will be Vaughn Williams' "Fantasia on a Theme by Tomas Tallis" and Stravinsky's Suite from "Petrouchka."

Malcolm Frager is the first—and to date, the only — artist ever to have won first prize at both the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium International Piano Competition in Brussels, and the Edgar M. Leventritt Competition in New York. He has been in the forefront of the international musical scene ever since the double triumph.

He has played with all the major American orchestras. In Europe, too, his success has been consistent.

In 1957 he was graduated magna cum laude from Columbia University, having majored in languages (he speaks seven).

He has performed in over 40 countries, including the Soviet Union.

Born in 1935, Frager gave his first recital in St. Louis at the age of six. Four years later, he played a Mozart Concerto with the St. Louis Symphony under Vladimir Golschmann.

At 14, he moved to New York to continue his studies. He began to win prizes as early as 1952.

Highlighting Andre Kostelanetz' program on Sunday will be a performance of "Fantasy of Japanese Woodprints" by Hovhanes featuring xylophonist Yoichi Hiraoka.

The Orchestra's principal cellist, John Saint'Ambrogio, will be soloist in Shostakovich's Nocturne from "The Gadfy" and Borodin's "Serenade for Cello and Orchestra."

The Sunday night program will open with Rossini's Overture to "Semiramide" followed by Liadov's "Enchanted Lake" and Kodaly's Dances from "Galanta."

Webern's "Summer Breezes" and Tchaikovsky's "Capriccio Italien," also will be heard.

The Fifth Dimension and Bill Withers will be heard in concert on Friday night at the Festival at SIUE.

The three men and two women who make up the Fifth Dimension are as nearly perfect a combination as can be attained, as their consistent top-selling hits verify.

Among their biggest singles are "Aquarius," "Let the Sunshine In," "Up, Up and Away," "Wedding Bell Blues" and "One Last Bell to Answer."

Although the five form an ideal combination, their getting together was more of a happening than a scientifically designed mixture.

They all had experience performing with other groups before finding each other.

Bill Davis Jr., Ron Townson and Lamonte McLemore grew up together in St. Louis, and gravitated one by one to Los Angeles where they met again and discovered they were perfectly matched for singing.

McLemore found Marilyn McCoo and Florence La Rue—the winners of talent contests—in 1962 and the group was formed.

None are prima donnas; all aim at making the group itself the star of the show.

They pay much attention to their staging and choreography.

And their imaginative wardrobing not only entertains the eye, but has set a trend which other groups have followed.

As an added attraction, songwriter and singer Bill Withers will appear at the Friday night concert.

His curent hit, "Lean on Me," soared to the top-ten and is still riding high at the top of the charts.

It is from his most recent album, "Still Bill."

Floyd E. Werle, a member of the Air Force Band.

Tickets are free and can be obtained by writing to the Belle-Scott Committee, P. O. Box 225, Belleville, Ill. 62222. Applicants have been asked to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope to aid in the prompt return of tickets.

Human Services Students Get Field Work

Two-State Search Set For Man for Nudity

Granite City police are coordinating efforts with St. Louis police in an effort to locate a young man in connection with indecent exposure cases here.

The man frightened three women in separate incidents Saturday afternoon by exposing himself in the nude while in a 1970 rust-colored auto.

The Missouri auto license on the car was traced to a St. Louis man. Police believe the offender, described as being in his 20s with long blond hair and a beard or mustache, may be involved in similar cases in St. Louis.

Madison Woman Kidnap Victim

A Madison woman who was visiting her mother in East St. Louis was abducted by three armed men, Madison police were told Monday.

Mrs. Lorna Lee Hopper, 22, of 211 Ewing Ave., Madison, and her mother, Mrs. Elsie Swift, were walking near Mrs. Swift's home when three men fired several gunshots at them, police were told.

Mrs. Swift said she ran and when she turned, she saw the three men placing Mrs. Hopper in an auto.

HIT-AND-RUN ACCIDENT

The auto of Stephen H. Stagner, 3145 Carlson Ave., parked at his home, was struck by a hit-and-run driver at 1:30 a.m. Monday, he reported at 9 p.m. Monday.

"I meet people every day who are involved in juvenile work," says Eileen Descamps, a student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. "They tell you things you never read in textbooks."

Getting student away from textbooks and placing them in the field is one of the goals of the human services program at SIUE. Miss Descamps, a junior in the program leading to a bachelor of arts degree, currently is employed as a youth worker at the Madison County Detention Home in Edwardsville.

She is one of dozens of SIUE students working in area social service agencies since the human services program started in September, 1970, under the SIUE Center for the Study of Crime, Delinquency and Corrections. About 85 students are enrolled in the program, with the first two expected to graduate Sept. 2.

Robert Gilland, program director, said the idea for the degree came from agency representatives who had to hire employes with bachelor degrees and wondered why students could not be prepared specifically for work in corrections, mental health or other helping professions.

Supervises Youths

At the county detention home, Miss Descamps supervises young adults who have been referred there by the courts. Most of the persons she supervises are between the ages of 12 and 17.

"Before working at the detention home, I spent time with the State Department of Children and Family Services in Edwardsville and Coordinated Youth Services in Granite City," said Miss Descamps, a native of Belleville. "I've been introduced to so much in the human services program that I'll have lots of experience to draw on when I decide specifically what kind of agency I want to work for after graduation."

EILEEN DESCAMPS, a student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, leaves after an 8-hour shift at the Madison County Detention Home. Miss Descamps is working for a bachelor of arts degre in human services as part of a university program that stresses field experiences.

Students in the program take 48 academic credit hours consisting of four specially designed courses, each spread over three academic quarters. The beginning course is an informal seminar focusing on the interrelated topics of poverty, education, employment, delinquency, crime, health and welfare.

The second course is the first field experience, in which students spend two half-days per week at local agencies. The students share their experiences weekly in a two-hour seminar and carry out individualized programs of reading and writing in their area of field activity. The third course involves applied research on a particular problem in an area community, and the final course, taken during the senior year, involves intensive field work in a specialized agency job chosen by the student.

Additional Courses

The human services degree also requires a secondary concentration in one of 10 fields of study and additional courses in government and sociology.

Helping people with problems was a major reason Loreeta Lovel of Edwardsville enrolled in the program. Mrs. Lovel, scheduled to begin graduate studies in counselor education at SIUE after she graduates with a human services degree next month, currently is doing volunteer work for course credit at Coordinated Youth Services in Granite City.

"Mostly I've been tutoring or counseling children referred here by school systems," Mrs. Lovel said. "Of course I'm learning a lot, but what's more important is that the kids have an adult they feel they can talk to. Over a period of time you can see improvement and that's very gratifying."

Pre-School Children

Helen Green of East St. Louis, a junior in the program, has been working for about 18 months at the Baptist Day Care Center in East St. Louis. The center is licensed to care for 80 pre-school children.

"One of the things I've learned working here is patience," Miss Green said. "At first I wasn't as patient as I should have been, but after awhile you get to understand children and really look forward to seeing them. After I graduate I definitely want to work in children's services."

Mary Page, director of the day care center, reflected the thoughts of most agency personnel supervising SIUE students in the human services program.

"Helen has been a great help," Miss Page said. "With her effervescence she is well suited for this work and the children really enjoy her."

Some students entering the program are not sure what they want to do. Gilland said a few find they do not want a career in human services and leave the program.

Fights in Vietnam

That, however, was not the case for Richard Walter of Alton. Walter entered SIUE before the human services program began, but after one year became bored with school, quit and entered military service, where he fought in Vietnam.

"After I got out of service I was looking for something new and different," Walter said. "This was in the fall of 1970. I heard about the human services program starting at the university and decided to try it."

Walter said he is pleased with his choice. He has done field work at Services for Youth in Alton and other agencies. "I like getting actual experience before graduating," he said. "It's not all books and lectures."

The program is run by SIUE faculty able to transmit their own experiences to students. In addition to Gilland, six faculty members are involved deeply. One of them, James Reidelberger, has done social welfare work in Madison County since 1953 and for six years was chief probation officer for the state's Third Judicial Circuit, which includes Madison and Bond Counties.

Corrections Work

Chiefly responsible for placement of students in area agencies is W. Duane Bridenbaugh, who before coming to SIUE directed a community center, ran a Head Start program and was involved in corrections work in Ohio.

Other faculty include James Stein, with experience in the Hawaii prison system; Nicholas Reuterman, with a Ph. D. in sociology and experience in youth services planning for the state of Colorado; James Jacobson, a minister who directed a center for delinquent youth in Minnesota; and Thomas Hughes, director of SIUE's national training program for detention home personnel.

Miss Descamps said from the program faculty and agency experiences she has learned much about human nature that she will use throughout her life.

"What I've been obtaining is an understanding of people and the intricacies of their feelings," she said. "People can't be categorized if you're going to help them — you must treat them as individuals within the system."

CYS VOLUNTEER WORKER. Loretta Lovel, a student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, works two days a week tutoring and counseling young people at Coordinated Youth Services in Granite City. The volunteer job is part of her coursework in the University's human services program, which stresses field experiences before graduation.

GC Town Board OKs Bills of $9,804

The Granite City Council, meeting Monday night as the town board, approved bills totaling $6,811 from the town fund and 2,992 in bills from the general assistance fund.

Town fund bills included $3,879 in salaries and expenses and $2,029 for collector's office expenses.

Among the bills paid from general assistance were $150 for rent, $421 for prescriptions, $1,124 for food, $150 for rent and $205 for services and supplies.

Edelman to Enroll At U. of Dubuque

Terry Edelman, 2825 Maryville Road, has been accepted to enroll this fall in the College of Liberal Arts of the University of Dubuque.

The college, located at Dubuque, Iowa, is a member of a tri-college consortium which includes nearby Clarke and Loras Colleges. Students who enroll in one of the schools may take advantage of the faculties, course offerings, facilities and social activities of all three.

GUESTS STEAL CAR

Allen Schmidt, 1001 Greenwood St., Madison, reported at 5:20 p.m. Monday that two youths, ages 17 and 18, who were guests overnight in his home, stole a watch, a ring, a tape player and his car keys from his home and left in his auto. The auto later was left near Schmidt's home.

Taiwan Believes Mao's Power Struggle with People's Liberation Army Is Far from Over

Ever since we toured the Far East three years ago, we have been deluged with mail regarding Asian issues. This August comment by the Weekly of Free China on the current Red China power struggle may be of local interest:

Maoists did a lot of whistling as they marched past the graveyard of the "People's Liberation Army" in the 45th anniversary observance.

A joint editorial of the three top Maoist mouthpieces pretended to an unshakable unity of the PLA and the Communist Party. The reality is far different.

In the wake of the "cultural revolution," Lin Piao's elements of the PLA set out to take power from the Maoist leftists.

The Communist Party had already been destroyed and replaced by an opportunistic collection of Maoists headed by Chiang Ching, Mao's wife, and more moderate bureaucrats personified by Chou En-lai.

PLA functionaries dominated the ruling "revolutionary committees" throughout the mainland. The ninth national congress of the CCP in April 1969 was controlled by the henchmen of Lin Piao. These neo-warlords obtained a majority on the new central committee and wrote a party charter naming Lin as Mao's successor.

That was the zenith of PLA power. Lin Piao thought himself strong enough to destroy Mao and take the reins into his own hands. He may have contemplated rapprochement with the Soviet Union, but definitive evidence is lacking. The Maoists accuse him of plotting with Moscow because that is the easiest way of smearing his name.

Lin lost in the struggle for power. He did not command the whole of the PLA apparatus. Not all of those he thought to be his supporters were loyal. The PLA was too factionalized for any one leader to exercise supreme command.

Lin died when the plane in which he was trying to escape was shot down. Those he had elevated to principal PLA commands were quickly weeded out. They have disappeared. Only time will reveal their fate.

No unity has emerged, either in the PLA or among the Maoists. Downgrading of the PLA can proceed only so far. The hand that holds the pistol is still to be found among the ranks of the PLA. Mao does not possess the gun, nor does Chiang Ching or Chou En-lai.

The personality cult of an ailing Mao is at an end. His name and his sayings provide about the only stability left on the mainland, so these are clung to in preference to anarchy.

Mao himself is only a shadow in the continuing power struggle. He has no real following and no power base. The "cultural revolution" was his monumental defeat and no one can put the pieces back together again.

The remaining contestants are the PLA, which could plunge the mainland into civil disorders at any moment as it battles for its life; Chiang Ching and her leftists, who have been up and down more times than a yo-yo; and Chou En-lai and his bureaucrats, who have based their policies on tactics of "divide and conquer" both domestically and internationally. The playing off of the United States and the Soviet Union is an example of divide and conquer in external relations.

There are some lesser pieces on the chessboard, including local strong men and the intellectuals Mao unsuccessfully attempted to liquidate in the "cultural revolution."

In the end, none of these forces can win. The disunity of those who call themselves Communists must finally result in the overthrow of Communism itself.

The 45th anniversary of the PLA could be its last.

Mao has insisted that power comes from the barrel of a gun. Chinese Communism turned the gun on itself when the PLA was ordered out to curb the "young generals" of the Red Guard and then had to be decimated in order to preserve Mao and those who use his name for their own aggrandizement.

Governor and Rival Coming to Visit This Community and Consider Its Urgent Needs

As Quad-Cityans prepare to welcome Governor Richard B. Ogilvie tomorrow and then his Nov. 7 opponent, Dan Walker, Sunday and Monday, it is natural to view the vote competition in terms of this community and its future.

Which contender could provide the leadership to move this area and this state forward in the early and mid-1970s? Who has the most specific and feasible proposals? Who has the skill and drive to turn such proposals into tangible reality?

The extent to which the Republican incumbent and the Democratic challenger outline detailed programs for the next four years will be a significant yardstick. Explanations of how present and new programs would be financed also will loom large in voter interest.

We have been vocal in recent weeks about issues and projects viewed as constructive for the Quad-Cities and Madison County — involving drainage, surface and air transportation, tourism, higher education, recreation and state services.

Certainly, the needs and wishes of each region do not necessarily fit into a neat package that state government can implement. State-level coordination is vital.

Not all suggested programs are advisable; spending levels must bear some relationship to availability of revenue. Nevertheless, the best interests of this area seem to have been lost sight of in some instances during this year's Springfield deliberations.

There is still time for a turn-around, if it is not too long delayed. Urgent requirements cry out for action. Who will respond, and how effectively?

OWNERSHIP OF TRACKS SHOULD BE REVEALED

To the Editor:

Peter Gnagi, whose father was president of Switzerland, carried trash cans to the curb on garbage collection day while attending Alton High School in Madison County as an exchange student. It was kept a well-guarded secret.

Too bad.

Fighting Illini could have asked him for an assist to reveal the stock ownership of racetrack stock being held in a Swiss bank.

President Nixon has no business in Illinois unless he delivers the details before election day.

President Nixon gave Mr. Scott $250,000 to combat crime in Illinois. I guarantee this readership that the next collection will produce some high class trash of a different kind.

The pick-up day is close because handlers of political collections will not strike.

Labor is neutral this year. However, the Nobel Peace Award committee will Labor.

Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania recommends the President for the Peace Award; Jane Fonda calls the President a traitor.

Yours truly would like to see impeachment proceedings started to restore this government's control to the people . . . of the people, by the people and for the people.

HOMECOMING A SUCCESS

To the Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and your organization for the invaluable services you gave to the Granite City Jaycee during their annual homecoming, held June 15-18 of this year. The publicity was much needed and greatly appreciated.

Thank you once again for your part in aiding our very successful homecoming.

SAFETY TRAINING FOR BIKE RIDERS ESSENTIAL

To the Editor:

I read in one issue of your publication of three accidents involving children on bicycles and cars, and have been told of several other bicycle-car accidents.

I was with a group of 20 members of the Great River Riders Bicycle Club on the evening when a ten-year-old girl was struck by a car.

Yes, both the bicycle and the car were trying to stop, but it was quite apparent that the child had forgotton that she had hand brakes rather than coaster brakes. In addition, the young rider was going the wrong way on a one-way street.

Many parents are buying bicycles and presenting them to children as toys. But bicycles are not toys. They are vehicles of transportation, subject to the very same rules, highway signs and signals as automobiles and motorcycles.

Perhaps the day is near when bicyclists and their "vehicles" should be examined, licensed and made subject to fines for violations the same as motorists.

Parents should instruct their children in the rules of the road and proper riding techniques — before the youngster is allowed to venture out onto the streets alone and unprepared for what lies ahead.

Free copies of the "Illinois Bicycle Rules of the Road" may be secured from the local driver's licensing bureau or from the Great River Riders office at the YMCA.

Vice-President of Touring, Great River Riders

'A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME . . .'

To the Editor:

While reading the July 24 issue of the Press-Record I was dumbfounded to discover that you are now referring to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville as SIUE instead of SIU-SW as you have done almost since the school's inception.

May I be the first to congratulate you and commend you for initiating the practice?

Your use of SIU-SW has been a source of irritation to me for years. Now, however, I feel that I can read your paper minus this inconvenience.

WALKER SUPPORT FROM ALL PARTY SEGMENTS

To the Editor:

At a time when there is so much talk about division within the Democratic party, the candidacy of Dan Walker is one subject which all Democrats are definitely agreed upon.

During the past two weeks, I have been conducting a telephone canvass of known Democrats in the Granite City area on behalf of Walker for Governor of Illinois.

I have found that Walker is strong within the Democratic party. This includes George Wallace Democrats, George McGovern Democrats and regular Democrats.

This kind of support shows that the voters of Illinois are fed up with the big "O" or the big "zero," as one man put it.

Health Care Expensive, Limited; Quality Standards Sometimes Lax

By GEORGE MEANY
President, AFL-CIO

The best health care is a privilege of the wealthy, because the system for delivering health care is geared more to profits than health.

Soaring costs, inaccessibility of care and frequently lax quality standards deprive many Americans of their right to quality health care.

Examine the future, in health terms, for a baby born to a poor, minority family — compared with a baby born to a more affluent family:

Chances are the poor baby will have twice as much illness in his lifetime; four times as much chronic illness; three times as much heart disease; seven times as many eye defects; five times as much mental retardation and nervous disorder.

He will probably live seven fewer years, and has twice the chance of dying before age 35.

He has only a 50-50 chance of being immunized against common childhood diseases.

These are this baby's chances if he lives past his first year of life, and he has half the chance to make it past that mark.

Lack of quality health care is not solely the plight of the poor and the minorities.

Anyone who has ever tried to get a doctor at night or on a weekend or waited for hours in a hospital emergency room with an injured child — or seen his family financially ruined by a single illness — knows the problem.

The old solutions have not worked.

Insurance companies cannot and will not insure everyone, nor will they control cost or quality.

The health care system is composed of isolated, uncoordinated units—individual doctors and hospitals that are monstrosities of inefficiency and waste.

However, we recognize that this system cannot be wiped out overnight and replaced in toto with a new one.

But reforms can, and must, start today.

America must transform the present system into one that efficiently and effectively provides for the health care needs of all the people, controls cost — and is fairly financed by a system of contributory taxes matched by federal general revenues.

Tax Spenders Should Trade Rubber Stamp for a Big Magnifying Glass

By ARCH BOOTH
Executive Vice-President, U.S. Chamber of Commerce

A lot of people worry about federal deficit spending, but nobody ever seems to do anything about it. The deficits just go on getting bigger and bigger. Why?

Well, there are basically two reasons: First, we all tend to favor cuts anywhere but in those programs that benefit us.

Second, Congress is not organized to stick to a budget. It is organized to spend.

Whether anything can be done about the first part of the problem is a matter between each man and his conscience.

The second part of the problem — the organization and nature of Congress — is more susceptible to a general solution.

Incredible though it may seem, at the present time neither Congress nor any of its committees considers the budget as a whole.

The House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Finance Commitee decide tax policy (income).

The legislative committees — such as Commerce, Agriculture, Defense, etc. — authorize the expenditure of funds (wishful thinking).

And the House and Senate Appropriations Commitees decide how much of what is available will actually be spent, and for what purpose (outgo).

A big authorization is meaningless without an appropriation to match it.

And frequently, knowing this, the Congressmen will pass an excessive authorization as a political gesture, in the expectation that the appropriations committees will later cut it down to size.

As you can see, the process runs backwards. Congress first decides what it wants to spend, and then considers whether there is enough money.

A more rational approach would be to start with an estimate of the available money, and then allocate it among competing needs on the basis of an established list of priorities.

But before that can happen, it is necessary to get the money-raisers together with the money-spenders, to consider income and outgo at the same time.

There is a committee charged with this responsibility — the Joint Commitee on the Legislative Budget — but it is dormant. It should be revived.

In conjunction with a better coordinated approach to the budget, Congress should insist on detailed, five-year budget projections — for both expenditures and obligational authority — and then make them public.

As things stand now, expensive programs with big future costs but small initial outlays tend to be passed and forgotten.

The budget is so complex that it's difficult enough to focus on the proposed new additions each year, without having to remember what's scheduled to happen to a program initiated some years in the past.

For the same reason, special federal programs, such as Social Security, should be subjected to the discipline of inclusion in the budget.

And that brings us to another facet of the problem. Old programs should not be re-funded automatically every year or two.

Each and every program should be measured against a standard of need and effectiveness, every time an appropriation for it is considered.

This is called the "zero-base budgeting technique."

Those programs that can no longer justify their place at the feed trough should be terminated, not rubber-stamped for another year.

Finally, expensive new programs should be pilot-tested before they are launched full-scale. And the testing agency should not have any stake in the outcome of the test.

This is such an obvious matter of common sense that one can only wonder why the idea should have to be proposed at all.

So that's the package:

1. Consideration of the budget as a whole.
2. Detailed, five-year projections.
3. Zero-base budgeting.
4. Pilot testing.
5. Inclusion of all federal commitments in one budget.

It wouldn't solve the deficit problem overnight, but it would help correct the conditions that cause it.

What can you do? Let your Congressman know what you want. Tell him you favor adoption of these five points.

At the national Chamber, we know from long experience that nothing moves a legislator like pressure from his constituents.

Desert Throat But Humor and Good Music at 'Disneyland for Adults'

First of Two Columns

A summer vacation in Las Vegas creates a many-splendored impression of desert daytime heat, cool evenings, the world's greatest collection of entertainment talent, and the brightest bright lights anywhere—with the possible exception of Granite City's "restaurant row" along Johnson Road.

My wife and I saw the back of the head of "TV's beloved bigot," also known as Carroll O'Connor, also known as Archie Bunker, as he was introduced from the audience during the dynamic performance of Engelbert Humperdinck.

We had a frontal view of sharply-costumed Mr. Humperdinck (who chose that as an easier name to spell and pronounce than his impossibly difficult actual name of George Dorsey).

Available but not viewed were Diana Ross, hypnotist Pat Collins, Ice Follies, Trini Lopez, Jack E. Leonard, Diahann Carroll, Bill Cosby, Casino de Paris, Bob Newhart, Blackstone Jr., Jerry Vale, Roy Clark, Liberace, Folies Bergere, Joey Bishop, Mills Brothers, Latin Fire Folies and Jackie Gayle.

We heard Robert Goulet on what proved to be his final night; he cut short his engagement due to a "desert throat." While he obviously was hoarse, his voice still ranked as one of the most listenable anywhere.

Goulet began with "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing" (courtesy of Coca-Cola) and pleased the enthusiastic audience with a Michel Le Grand medley, followed by "A House Is Not a Home" and "Once Upon a Time."

While roaming around with a portable microphone, he addressed thrilled female spectators with songs like "You Are Woman," "You Do Something to Me" and "You're Just Too Good to Be True."

Union Plaza, the newest Las Vegas hotel, was celebrating its first anniversary.

Situated at No. 1 Main St. at the western end of Fremont Street only a short distance from the downtown area's biggest and most brilliantly illuminated establishments, the Union Plaza was giving away birthday cake, champagne and new autos to mark the occasion.

Billed as a $111,111.11 birthday party, its observance is scheduled to last through Labor Day.

Circus Circus was just opening a tall hotel associated with its circus-tent-shaped building at the time of our trip.

Called "Disneyland for adults," Las Vegas offers a total of 24 casino-hotels featuring not only motion picture, television and night club stars but also multi-million-dollar stage productions, popular and folk music groups and "country and western" favorites.

Such entertainers represent the largest single expense to the hotels.

The Las Vegas Hilton International, for example, pays between $50,000 and $100,000 a week to singers like Barbra Streisand and Elvis Presley.

The Sahara has Carson, the Riviera offers Humperdinck and Caesars Palace presents Wales' wailing Tom Jones to replace its now-retired Frank Sinatra.

Nevada's favorable tax laws allow entertainers to keep a larger share of their paychecks than in certain other states, particularly California, and this is considered a factor in the city's ability to attract them.

Humperdinck broke all of Dean Martin's records during his four-week engagement this summer.

This was made possible by the fact that the Versailles Theater at the Riviera was enlarged by 150 seats on the eve of his latest appearance.

Engelbert has been appearing there from time to time during the past three years and will continue for at least another three years.

Pupi Campo, husband of Betty Clooney, who is Rosemary's sister, meanwhile was providing Latin-style band music from Cleopatra's Barge, a huge vessel which actually moves about in water inside Caesars Palace.

For sheer voice and style, we'll take Jack Jones, whose best selling records have included "Lollipops and Roses," "Wives and Lovers" and "Call Me Irresponsible."

The selection and sequence of his songs are admirable and the arrangements and tempos are up-to-the-minute.

It was sad that he was unable to draw crowds as large as those attracted to better known, but not necessarily more gifted vocalists.

In a bit of pointed humor, televison king Johnny Carson revealed his answer to the many who defend Las Vegas weather and say, "Yes, it's hot, but you don't notice it so much because we have such low humidity."

Carson's reply: "There isn't much humidity in an oven, either."

He and his network Tonight Show will videotape the opening night festivities during Christmas week, 1973, of the MGM Grand Hotel, currently under construction.

Why bother to see Carson in person when he is on television for an hour and a half each night?

The simplest answer is that he utilizes a different brand of humor. In the latest instance, his monologue featured laughs —combined with a bit of pathos — about his adolescent years.

SNOWMAN MELTS. Gene Snow, a veteran drag racer, in far lane, poises his car on the starting line for a drag against the Candies & Hughes funny car. Snow, who has vowed not to shave until he wins a major championship, continued to grow his beard after this duel which eliminated him here.

Mary Travers, Beach Boys, David Cassidy Entertain at Festival Aug. 15, 16 and 19

The final full week of pop-folk-rock events at the Mississippi River Festival will feature concerts by Mary Travers on Tuesday, Aug. 15, The Beach Boys on Wednesday, Aug. 16, and by David Cassidy on Saturday, Aug. 19.

All weeknight concerts on the Southern Illinois University campus at Edwardsville begin at 8:30.

Folksinger Mary Travers is best known for her many succesful years with Peter, Paul and Mary. But since the group retired in 1970, she has emerged as a singer in her own right.

Her two albums and numerous concerts by herself have established her as one of the leading female folk singers in the country.

The Beach Boys, appearing on Aug. 16, have been on the popular music scene for a decade. Their popularity continues as they adjust their distinctive sound to match the current trends.

Their latest albums are "So Tough" and "Surf's Up."

Some of their earlier singles, such as "Good Vibrations," "Surfer Girl," "Surfing U.S.A.," and "Dance, Dance, Dance" are the songs so often associated with The Beach Boys.

Cassidy has become America's teenage idol through his weekly appearances as co-star of television's "The Partridge Family" and his frequent concert tours. But his powerful and expressive voice has made him popular among other age groups too.

His current single, "How Can I Be Sure," is at the top of the charts now, joining the million sellers that he's recorded with the Partridge Family — "I Think I Love You" (over five million copies) and "Doesn't Somebody Want to Be Wanted."

The two Partridge Family albums, "Up to Date" and "The Partridge Family Album," have sold over one and two million albums, respectively.

Appearing with David Cassidy on Aug. 19 will be Kim Carnes and Dave Ellingson.

The 1972 season — sponsored by Mississippi River Festival, Inc., a not-for-profit Illinois corporation with directors from Missouri and Illinois — will conclude with the "Yes" music group on Aug. 21.

Law for Police Course Set at Area College

Belleville Area College Division of Criminal Justice will conduct a one week course entitled, "Law For Police" from Sept. 11-15.

Instructors will be from Los Angeles, Chicago, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation and State Police to present such topics as Recent Court Decisions, Constitutional Law, Illinois Criminal Law, and Pre-Trial Publicity.

It will be the first time the course has been presented, and it is in keping with the college's policy of bringing up-to-date, professional police training to the area law enforcement agencies.

PARKED CAR HIT

A car parked on Eighth Street at Washington avenue which was struck by an auto driven by William D. Fox, 814 Madison Ave., this week, was owned by John Graville, 722 Washington Ave. The impact pushed Graville's car into another parked car. It previously was reported that Graville's car was owned by a soda bottling firm.

HOUSE ENTERED

Mike Mecava, 2013 Garfield Ave., reported this week that burglars entered his home by breaking a back door window while he was on vacation. Nothing was missing.

A PRESS-RECORD CLASSIFIED AD BRINGS RESULTS

New Information System Unveiled at University

Greater convenience for students, more precise data to meet escalating requests from government agencies and more time for university personnel to work on other problems are the goals of a student information system being developed at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Ed Soliday, coordinator of the system, said it is an attempt to store previously scattered items of information about students in a central location.

"The information we're bringing together and storing in computors was isolated in all kinds of places," said Soliday, assistant to the SIUE director of admissions and records. "We knew a student's major field of study and similar things, but the information wasn't particularly accessible to us or to the students. We're not only attempting to consolidate information, but also consolidate it in retrievable form."

When a student enters SIUE, he fills out an admission form. The form is coded and sent to the university's data processing and computing center, where it becomes part of a master list called the active student profile.

Accurate Information

From that time on, keeping the information accurate is partly the student's responsibility, Soliday said.

"Students will receive a card with their biographic data when they register for courses each quarter," Soliday said. "A student can look at the data we have and if it's no longer valid, can come to use and make the proper changes. This is a linkage with the student we never had before."

The new system should mean students who change their address often will nevertheless receive grade reports and other correspondence at the proper address, Soliday said.

It also will mean greater convenience for students who do not attend full time because they hold 40-hour-per-week jobs.

"Before if a student was out of classes for one quarter, he had to go through the complete admissions procedure when he was ready to return," Soliday said.

Time-Consuming Chores

"That meant having to get new transcripts and other time-consuming chores. It used to really bug teachers who were attending the university intermittently for in-service courses. But under the new system, a student's file can be reactivated any time within a calendar year of his last quarter of attendance. Re-entry problems for students will be greatly diminished."

Soliday said the system will allow the university to supply accurate data to the Illinois Board of Higher Education, The U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and other agencies continually requesting it.

"The watchword today is accountability," Soliday said. "Government agencies that give us our operating funds want to know more about our students, teaching loads, academic majors. Under the old system, we didn't have a lot of the information these agencies wanted, and we did have a lot of garbage, useless information. Now of the Board of Higher Education wants to know right away how many majors we have in the elementary education department, we can tell them."

The new system, by being more efficient, will free employes in the registrar's office and the Graduate School from some tedious record keeping. "That means these people will be able to spend their time more profitably on other problems," Soliday said.

Big Brother Role?

Soliday said a central information system does not mean the university is taking on a "Big Brother" role.

"No information, address lists included, is given to anyone outside the university," he said.

Soliday said like any new system, "this one is going to have bugs. I'd guess it will be another year before it's operating how we'd like it to in every case."

For Soliday, putting the new system together has been a learning experience. The owner and operator of a hardware store in Wood River for 15 years before coming to SIUE in 1967, he had little experience with computers.

"I know plenty about the kind of hardware you sell, but not about computer hardware," he said. "The system is very sophisticated, and it never would have got off the ground without lots of work by our data processing specialists."

ASSORTED TOOLS STOLEN

Assorted tools were stolen from the main office and an air conditioned was damaged in a burglary at American Colloid Co., 1601 Walnut St., it was reported Monday. Entry was gained through an overhead door. A fork lift was used to run into a chain fence gate.

Jail Administration Course Set at College

Belleville Area College will offer a course in Jail Administration in the fall. The course will be conducted by the college's Division of Criminal Justice and will meet on Mondays for 16 weeks.

According to a college spokesman, for too long there has been very little training and education provided those charged with the responsibility of operating our jails and other correctional institutions. Hopefully, the course will begin to change this situation.

Anyone having questions about the Jail Administration course should, contact Mel Hutnick, supervisor of the Division of Criminal Justice, 235-5113.

DRIVER INJURED

Linda Jones, 32, of 33 Iris Court, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital during the weekend after the car she was driving struck a parked car belonging to Gary Holtcamp at No. 5 Lily Ave. She suffered cuts to the chin and lower lip and had chest pains.

Like a good neighbor, State Farm is there.

Trust Bank to Sell Park Medallions

The Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, along with other participating banks and savings and loan associations in Illinois, will begin distribution of the official 1971-72 limited issue of National Conference on State Parks commemorative medallions, Ernest A. Karandjeff, bank president, announced today. The medallions, authorized by the Conference, commemorate the 50th anniversary of the organization.

The dollar-size medallions have been struck in two metals, .999 fine silver and bronze. Each silver medallion is serially numbered on the edge up to 15,000, the limit of the issue. They will sell for $10 each. The bronze medallions are priced at $1 each.

Proceeds from the sales of the medallions will be used to support the National Conference on State Parks' continuing efforts in the area of ecology. Participating banks and savings and loan associations are donating their time and facilities as a public service in support of Conference activities.

Both bronze and silver medallions, because of their limited issue, are expected to become collectors' items. They are of the same size and design. The face of the medal depicts Stephen T. Mather, Founder of the National Conference on State Parks and first director of the National Park Service.

The reverse side features a campfire with the numeral 50 over the flame. The words 'Golden Anniversary 1921. Des Moines, Iowa. Des Moines was the site of the first meeting to establish the Conference. Almost 200 persons from 25 states and 84 cities responded to Iowa Governor W. L. Harding's invitation to attend the original meeting of organization.

Plane Owners Must File Special Form, IRS Says

Owners of aircraft are required to file a Federal Use Tax Return on Form 4638 by Aug. 31 Leon C. Green, district director of Internal Revenue Service for central and southern Illinois, said today.

The tax year begins July 1 and runs through the following June 30. Green said the tax is $25 plus 3½ cents for each pound of maximum certificated take off weight of jet aircraft. On non-jet aircraft the tax is $25 and two cents for each pound of maximum takeoff weight over 2,500 pounds.

IRS Publication 510, "Information on Excise Taxes for 1972," provides detailed information on this tax and may be obtained free from the nearest IRS district office.

'In His Steps' to Be Shown Sunday

"In His Steps," a feature-length motion picture based on the world-famous novel of the same name, will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at First Baptist Church in Madison.

The story originally appeared as a book around the turn of the century, written by a Topeka clergyman named Charles M. Sheldon. It is reported to have sold over 30 million copies, and has been translated into dozens of languages across the world.

The film story follows the experiences of Rachel Paige, aspiring young actress, newspaper publisher Ed Norman, and Pastor Henry Maxwell, the clergyman whose unique concept changed their lives.

"In His Steps" as a novel came at a time in American history when vigorous social reforms were underway, especially in industrial communities. The film updates these situations, giving the story a contemporary approach.

Cheryl Lee Morrison appears as Rachel in the film. Russ Reed is cast as Pastor Maxwell, and Harry Elders portrays Ed Norman. Other roles are filled by Alma DuBus, Nicki Pierce and Walter Stocker.

FLYING WORKHOUSE. A commercial helicopter was used here by the Castings Division of General Steel Industries to lift reroofing materials onto the core building. Company officials estimated that the 12 loads lifted by the helicopter in 40 minutes saved two weeks work for a crew of workmen. Due to the proximity of surrounding buildings, moving a crane into the area was impossible, officials said.

Census Bureau Plans Job Survey in Area

A number of households in this area will take part in a nationwide survey on employment and unemployment to be conducted the week of August 14-18 by the Bureau of the Census, Guy A. Lutz, director of the bureau's Data Collection Center in St. Paul, announced today.

The survey is taken monthly by the bureau for the U. S. Department of Labor. The households interviewed are scientifically selected to represent a cross section of all households.

Statistics on conditions in the labor force from month to month provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the country. In June, for example, the nation's unemployment rate dropped to 5.9%. The decline, from 5.9% in May, brought the jobless rate to its lowest level in more than a year and a half.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is held confidential by law and is used only to compile statistical totals.

Nixon Campaign May Be Low Key; No 'Whistle-Stopping'

By RAY McHUGH
Copley News Service

Washington — Even before the Republican convention puts its "prime" stamp on the Nixon-Agnew ticket, the 1972 presidential campaign is beginning to take shape.

Despite the excitement of Sen. George McGovern's rush to the Democratic nomination, the fall campaign may be a comparatively low-key affair.

McGovern faces serious financial problems that may force him to curtail extravagant national television specials and depend instead on media coverage.

Republican leaders have already said "no" to his request for television debates with the President.

The impact of his drive for youth voter registration, his mail-order bid for money and even many of his speeches will be local or regional in nature.

McGovern also is burdened by some reluctant Democrats in the House and Senate and in state offices who prefer to keep the nominee at arm's length, fear his liberal proposals may undermine their own re-election campaigns.

President Nixon stopped a torrent of speculation about the vice presidency before it really began to roll by announcing that Spiro T. Agnew will again be his running mate.

The follow-up announcement that the President will fly to Honolulu Aug. 29-31 to meet with Japan's new premier, Kakuei Tanaka, underscores the view that Mr. Nixon will forgo a whirwind September-October political tour.

Instead, White House sources indicate, his emphasis will be on "business as usual" with Vice President Agnew carrying the brunt of the politicking.

Mr. Nixon's refusal to enter TV debates with McGovern was expected.

His debates with John F. Kennedy in 1960 are judged a key factor in his defeat that year — not beacuse he necessarily "lost" the debates, but because he raised a less — known challenger to the prestige level he had enjoyed as an eight-year vice president.

It made Sen. Kennedy occupant of the White House.

The Nixon staff has no intention of giving McGovern that kind of assistance.

Mr. Nixon will make key speeches in several cities to representative national groups, aides say, but he does not plan to "whistle-stop" across the country.

He may open his campaign in late August at the national convention of the American Legion in Chicago.

It has been suggested that his Chicago speech be beamed by closed-circuit television into the national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Minneapolis and to the coincident national meetings of the Amvets and the Disabled American Veterans.

The Legion and VFW also have invited McGovern to speak at their conventions, which open Aug. 20.

Key figures in both veterans' groups have been sharply critical of McGovern's Vietnam and defense policies.

"The nature of the presidency just doesn't permit the 'whistle-stop' kind of operation anymore," said one White House assistant.

"No incumbent has done it since Harry Truman in 1948."

The Secret Service also is known to have cautioned against a campaign that would expose the President to crowds on a pre-set schedule.

Security men are particularly anxious about Mr. Nixon's tendency to plunge into enthusiastic groups to shake the hands of well-wishers.

It was in such a circumstance that Gov. George Wallace of Alabama was shot at a Laurel, Md., shopping center.

GC Bankers Attend Administration School

Two residents of Granite City were among 922 banker-students from 50 states and Washington, D.C., who attended the 20th summer session of the three-year School of Bank Administration at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

The school is sponsored by the University of Wisconsin and the Bank Administration Institute, and is one of the more than 500 short courses and conferences held on the Wisconsin campus at Madison throughout the year as educational public services for all citizens.

Attending from here were Earl G. Dolzauer, First Granite City National Bank and David E. Giese, American National Bank of Granite City.

ARRESTED AT MARKET

Terry L. Pace, 18, of 4836 Warnock Ave., was arrested and charged with petty theft after allegedly attempting to take a carton of cigarettes at Viviano's Tom Boy Store in Pontoon Beach during the weekend. He was released on $25 bond.

No Generation Gap Between Bach, Today's Young People

By JUDY HUGG
Copley News Service

Today's younger generation seems to find in the intricate bargue ornaments of Johannes Sebastian Bach some order in a very disorderly universe.

No mater how complicated the world appears, the listener is assured that all parts are properly related and that the master will pull it all together for a triumphant resolution.

So it is no surprise that Bach's music now is being used to background a novel-become-movie called "Slaughterhause-Five," which concludes after beating the dead horse for a while that war is evil.

Bach's "Concerto in F Minor," "Concerto in D," "Brandenburg Concerto No. 4," and "Chorale Prelude" are used to conjure up the baroque city of Dresden (Prague was used by the film-makers because the Communists barred them from Dresden).

RCA-Victrola now has released the soundtrack in an LP (VICS-1686).

That Bachs music does effectively evoke the image of old Dresden is undeniable.

But that the master's basically optimistic and cheerful music fits the mood of disillusionment in this film—adapted from Kurt Vonnegut Jr.'s novel — is another matter.

However, the performances on the recording are first rate, and for this addition to the Bach library his fans can be thankful.

Also, the film, which has stirred up immense intesest, especially in the younger audiences, promises to bring the master's sound to the ears of many who otherwise might not care to listen.

The album is typical of the impressively smooth Jimmy Smith music.

A much appreciated feature of the album is the spirit of a live audience background and the absence of audience interference which spoils many good live recordings.

Smith's music remains mellow throughout the LP, which includes the title song "Root Down," the familitr "Let's Stay Together," "Slow Down Sagg," "After Hour" and "Sagg Shootin' His Arrow."

Also on the Verve label comes Paul Mauriat, who has done it again in his new album "Love Theme From the Godfather."

Starting out with the love theme, there actually isn't a bad cut on the entire album.

The love theme is a haunting melody to which Mauriat has applied his own special style.

It is easily top-40 material and a tune which you could find yourself humming or whistling.

There are songs for every mood and to mention one without mentioning all the others would be injustice because they are all so good.

It is an album for both listening and dancing and, most of all, enjoying.

* * * *

Aztec Two Step is an odd name for a folk duet. However, Rex Fowler and Neal Shulman ran across the name in a poem by Lawrence Ferlinghetti, liked it and decided to use it as their recording name.

"Aztec Two Step" is also the title of their debut album for Elektra Records.

There is nothing odd about their music, though, unless you consider excellent vocal harmony and fine guitar picking and oddity.

Every song on their album is easy listening.

Lyrically, the songs range from comical to philosophical: they were all composed by Neal and Rex.

The backgrounds are tastefully appropriate, ranging from simple guitar to full strings.

Both members of the Aztec Two Step are talented guys and together they have got a good thing going — nice music.

* * * *

"Instant Death," Eddie Harris' latest jazz album for Atlantic Records, contains some highly unusual but very nice sounds.

The strange sounds are produced by such instruments as the African whistle and talking drums, the Kilimbo, African thumb piano) and the electric shaker and horn vocals.

GC Youth Training at Philmont Scout Ranch

Chuck Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Taylor, 7 Fontainebleau Drive, is receiving specialized training in Scout Leadership at Philmont Scout Ranch and Explorer Base in the Rocky Mountains of northeastern New Mexico.

Life Scout Taylor, 14, is one of more than 800 Scouts selected from across the nation to participate in the 12-day summer course at the Junior Leader Instructor Training Camp, located on the 214-squire mile ranch. The purpose of the course is to prepare the scouts to assist their council in training other junior leaders.

A member of Troop 5, sponsored by Nameoki United Methodist Church, he is receiving intensive instruction in the skills of leadership and scoutcraft, including patrol and troop activity planning, hike planning, campfire planning and conducting training programs.

The Scouts participating in each session live in tents and are organized into patrols. Throughout the training program, patrol positions are rotated to give each participant a well-rounded experience.

The Junior Leader Training Camp is part of a far-reaching program conducted by the Boy Scouts of America at Philmont, involving more than 15,000 scouts and leaders who hike the mountain trails each summer.

In addition, 1,500 volunteer scouters and 6,000 members of their families visit the ranch for a week of training and vacationing at the world's largest boys ranch.

Foreign Drug Laws Harsh on 'Pot'-Carrying Americans

By CLYDE STEINER
Copley News Service

ROME—There are now more than 1,500 American in European jails. Two-thirds of them are held on drug charges. That is a 50% increase over last year.

Almost all of the drug arrests are for possession or use of marijuana or hashish.

Whether the Americans are biding their time in London's Pentonville Prison or Rome's Regina Coeli (Queen of Heaven) Jail, their incarceration is a result of miscalculating the European approach to drugs.

The European attitude can best be summed up by the recent statement of a Salerno judge who told reporters, "Half a gram or half a kilo. It's all the same to me."

The Italian Supreme Court recently ruled in a drug appeal case that there should be no difference under the law between those arrested for dealing in drugs and those arrested with small quantities for their own personal use.

Even England, with its reputation for leniency toward drug users and a free heroin program for addicts, is inhospitable to the occasional pot-carrying tourist.

John W., a young Canadian, for example, who picked up at the London airport and is now serving a five-year sentence for importing hashish into the country.

The Italian and Spanish scenes are more brutal.

William B. was placed in an Italian institution for the insane when he and his wife were arrested for the possession of a half-gram (seven-hundredths of an ounce) of hash.

Confinement in a mental hospital is not uncommon in Latin countries, where drugs are considered a strange mentalaberration.

Electrodes are taped to the drug user's head and current is applied.

The electricity is apparently intended to provide the stimulus that will return the LSD user from his "trip" or the pot smoker from his "high."

William B.'s wife, Carol, fared worse. She was placed in an Italian women's prison.

She underwent an emergency operation and died there, two days later. She was buried a month before their case was scheduled for trial.

The severity of the European approach is far removed from the sophisticated and tolerant attitude taken toward the pot smoker in many American communities such as Ann Arbor, Mich., where pot smokers are now only subject to a $5 fine modeled after a parking ticket.

John Ingersoll, head of the U. S. Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs and nemesis of the drug cult, has chided police who bother to arrest addicts as "spinning their wheels."

Ironically, the BNDD overseas branch offices are largely responsible for the current European hard line on "smokers."

Until recently, the BNDD main European office operated from Rome, and narcotics agents cooperated in training a fledgling Italian narcotics force.

U. S. persuasion is also credited with adding marijuana to the proscribed drug list under Italian law.

That law now provides minimum jail terms of three years and maximum of eight for the possession, sale, or barter of drugs. Coupled to this are fines ranging from $480 to $6,400.

The slow operation of the European judicial system is even more important to the tourist than the sentence.

There is little application of the bail system in continental European countries because they operate under vestiges of the old Napoleonic legal code.

In Italy, bail in drug cases is specifically forbidden.

The suspect is kept in prison while the police complete their initial investigation, even before he is formally charged.

He then waits until his case comes to court — currently an average time span of ten months.

Many foreigners do not, in fact, serve their sentences after conviction, but are merely deported from the country.

At the Rome airport, police use two dogs, working in shifts, to sniff out youths carrying hash or pot.

On his first day on the job, the trained Labrador, Marty the Second, sniffed out the raincoat pocket of Ronald A., a GI who was waiting to change planes on his way back to the United States for a discharge.

The GI was arrested for possession of 125 grams of hash.

Star performer in Rome is the English-speaking 26-year-old motorbike jockey, Nicola L., from Calabria.

If he can beg, borrow or — better yet — buy a joint from a transient, he has all the evidence he needs for an arrest. Nicola is a brigadied in the Public Security Police.

Boy Scouts on Trip West, To Visit in Boys' Town

A visit to Father Flanagan's Boys Town in Omaha, Neb., and travel on the Marquette Trail became a reality for 13 Boy Scouts from Granite City this week when they departed from Holy Rosary School in Fairmont City for a one-week trip.

The scouts began plans for the trip last year and earned their fare of $39.50 by selling Christmas items and gifts in a project sponsored by Boy Scout Troop 7 at St. Joseph School.

The Marquette Trail is sponsored by the Department of Outdoor Education of the Catholic School System of the Diocese of Belleville and is under the immediate direction of the Marquette Trail committee in cooperation with the various deanery Catholic committees on scouting.

Making the trip by bus, the itinerary was planned to give the young boys a scenic tour of the country by crossing the Mississippi River at St. Louis. They were taken past the Gateway Arch and the St. Louis Cathedral and over the rolling Missouri hills to Independence, the home of former president Harry Truman.

From Kansas City, Mo., the group was to travel northward to Omaha, and the great plains. While camped at Boys Town, the boys are to visit residents and have the use of the swimming pool and lake.

They also are to visit places of interest in Omaha including the Museum of Transportation, and have the opportunity of walking an old mission trail of 18 miles used long ago.

During the stay, all Boy Scouts will tour the schools, apartment buildings and homes of the 1,000 boys living there, as well as the bakery, and farm area.

Father Wegner, the director of Boys' Town, will greet the visiting scouts and make each one an honorary citizen of Boys Town.

Prior to leaving on Saturday, each of the local boys will receive a Marquette Trail neckerchief with the symbol Boys' Town.

Those taking the trip are Darren Geisler, Mike Kittel, John Courtwright, Mark DeRuntz, Brian Warren, James Hendricks Jr., Marshall McElroy, Brian Hendricks, Wesley Stanfill, Martin Fedler, Dane Painter, Frank Camarata and Greg Ahler, supervised by John Stanfill and the Rev. Anthony Rochel, S.J., a former assistant pastor of St. Joseph who is now assigned at St. Louis University.

Student Exchange with U. of Quebec Offered

An opportunity for university students to study inexpensively in French Canada is being offered this year by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The exchange program involves the University of Quebec at Montreal. Students can attend, either the fall semester, which ends at the same time as the fall quarter here, or the entire academic year.

The exchange program was initiated by Allen McCurry, dean of the Social Sciences Division, and Mrs. Gertrude Marti, foreign languages professor. Jim Lukas, formerly on the local faculty and presently with the University of Quebec, arranged Canadian cooperation. The program is administered through the office of the assistant vice-president for interdisciplinary studies.

Prof. Marti said there are "three conditions for acceptance to the exchange program: sufficient competence in French to be able to follow courses given in French; a B average; and the recommendations of both the student's major advisor and the department head."

Mrs. Marti encouraged students to apply quickly, because the fall semester at Quebec begins Sept. 6.

She said the only additional expense involved in the exchange would be transportation to and from Montreal. Otherwise, she said, "the students will simply switches places." Prof. Marti said American students would pay their tuition and fees here, and their counterparts in Montreal would pay there. Other expenses would be about what they would be in the student's respective home country.

The University of Illinois chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon has initiated 1,200 members, more than any TKE chapter.

College fraternities have chapters on 600 campuses in the United States and Canada.

County 4-H Clubs Hold 'Mini-Fair' at Hamel

The 4-H clubs of Madison County held a "mini-fair" at the Community Building in Hamel. Among clubs taking part was the Moonspiners group of Granite City.

The special event was held as an extra day to exhibit projects not included in the regular show days of the county. Included in the program were a cat show and a bicycle safety riding contest, as well as judging of the newest 4-H project, "Do Your Own Thing."

Moonspinners receiving awards were Mary Ann Boquette, Kathleen DeRuntz, Jane Friederich, Karen Ozbun, Rosalie Ponce, Linda St. Ivany, Betsy Slate, Teresa Butler, Jo Marie DeRuntz and Anita Turner. All received "A" ratings and blue ribbons.

Others attending were Lori Matlottki, Mary Jane Bushong and Rita DeRuntz. Leaders attending were Mrs. Elizabeth Schmidt and Mrs. Ruth Malottki. Mothers helping provide transportation were Mrs. Margaret DeRuntz and Mrs. Catherine Ponce.

State fair projects also were displayed. Next regular meeting of the Moonspinners will be Oct. 5. The club will observe National 4-H Week in September.

SIUE Nursing Division Revises Curriculum

A revised curriculum plan has been adopted by the Nursing Division faculty at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, to go into effect this fall.

According to Prof. Earline Flottman, coordinator of the program, the revisions will provide greater flexibility in program planning for the undergraduate nursing student, the registered nurse seeking a baccalaureate degree and the student who intends to pursue certification for school nursing in Illinois.

"Some courses are primarily for sophomores and others are for the more advanced students," Mrs. Flottman said. "Many of the courses can be taken either in the junior or senior year. Most of them will be offered at least twice during the academic year, which will enable the student to make program plans and progress at his own rate and according to his needs and interests. Some of the courses will be open to non-nursing majors with an interest in the field of health care."

Revisions have also been made to give the registered nurse student a wider choice in proficiency examinations.

Under the new curriculum a student may pursue simultaneously school nurse certification and the degree in nursing. For the registered nurse who has a baccalaureate degree, selected courses required for school nurse certification will be available.

More Patrolmen on Beat to Curb Crime Urged by Price

A significant increase in the manpower levels of local-level law enforcement agencies would be the result of legislation Congressman Melvin Price is sponsoring in the House of Representatives, he said this week.

The bill, entitled "The Police Manpower Act of 1972," would authorize $2 billion per year for six years to underwrite the costs of recruitment, training and salary for approximately 140,000 additional police officers.

This would represent an increase of 40% in police manpower throughout the country.

"So far," Price commented, "it seems that our efforts to combat crime have been largely ineffectual.

"Despite a soaring fiscal commitment to the war on crime, studies have shown that these expenditures have not had a significant impact on the level of criminal activity.

"It is true," Price continued, "that increasing the level of police manpower is not the sole answer to combating crime. But it is clear that policemen on the beat are effective weapons for the control and deterrence of criminal activity.

"Increasing such patrol presence is the single most important step we can take to significantly and quickly reduce crime in America."

The Police Manpower and Training Act of 1972 would allocate, as quickly and nonbureaucratically as possible, federal funds directly to local communities, he said.

Funding would be based on the findings of a comprehensive study of the nature and scope of the crime problems and law enforcement of each participating community.

"This study," Price concluded, "would assure that the local police forces were utilizing their existing personnel and resources as efficiently as possible before any federal funds were allocated."

Hearings Soon on Order Requiring Bottle Deposits

Springfield — It is expected to be two to three weeks before new public hearings are set on the proposal to require nickel deposits on all beverage bottles and cans.

It was initially proposed as an anti-pollution measure by the state's Pollution Control Board. Actual implementation of the plan was held up for several monthss after 14 plaintiffs sought, and got, an injunction barring the PCB from proceeding with the matter.

That injunction in turn was thrown out by the Illinois Appellate Court in Chicago, clearing the way for the PCB to conduct the public hearings which must precede enforcement of a board order.

The PBC ruling, recommended by the Institute for Environmental Quality, would in effect do away with the "no deposit, no return" beverage container.

It would make all dealers responsible for collecting and refunding a nickle deposit on each can or bottle of beer, ale or soft drings they sell.

Among the 14 plaintiffs who obtained the temporary injunction barring earlier implementation of the ruling were retailers, trade groups, labor unions and consumers.

Statewide public hearings on the proposed policy had been scheduled last spring but were was granted.

In seeking to overthrow the injunction, the PCB argued that public hearings, at least, were necessary to determin the issues in the case.

The board contended thatany injunction should only be sought once such hearings had been held and facts established.

In overturning the injunction, the Appellate Court supported this position, and held that public hearings should be permitted "since no facts of any kind have been decided by the agency . . . and no person can tell whether any regulations will ever be adopted by the board."
